Important Notice!

The following information is published so that the friends and relatives of the members of the Newfoundland Regiment may address their letters in accordance with the following directions:—

Always put the regimental number, full name, rank and Company (if known) of the addressee.

1. If the addressee is understood to be at the Depot in Scotland the letters and parcels should be addressed as follows:

(No.) (Rank) (Name)

Company
Newfoundland Regiment,
Newton-on-Ayr, Scotland.

2. If the addressee is understood to be on active service:

(No.) (Rank) (Name)

Company
1st Newfoundland Regiment,
British Expeditionary Force,
c/o Newfoundland Pay and Record Office,
38 Victoria Street,
London, S.W., England.

3. If the addressee is understood to have been invalided to Great Britain and is in Hospital:

(No.) (Rank) (Name)

c/o Newfoundland Contingent,
Pay and Record Office,
38 Victoria Street,
London, S.W., England.

If in doubt of the whereabouts of a member of the Regiment, use same address as above, No. 2. Never address a letter in care of the War Office or in care of the G. P. O., London.

With regard to Parcels, they should be carefully packed and bear a Customs declaration specifying contents. The outer cover should be of strong linen, calico, canvas or other textile (waterproofed), and must be securely sewn up. Packing in cardboard or paper is not sufficient.

(a) The address must be written in bold letters on the covering in ink or indelible pencil and no on a label, whether tied or pasted on. The name and address of the sender must be shown on the cover.

(b) Wooden or metal boxes with square corners should not be sent unless well padded, as such boxes are liable to damage other parcels in transit.

(c) No perishable articles may be sent, and anything likely to become soft or sticky, such as chocolate or sweets, must be packed in tins well fastened down. Bottles, pudding basins, and the like are prohibited and will not be accepted for transmission.

(d) Cigarettes and Tobacco should be packed in tin boxes, soldered to make them airtight, and these should then be placed in wooden boxes, otherwise they are liable to be spoiled by damp.

Parcels must not exceed 11 lbs. in weight.

Any further information may be had on application at the Post Office.

H. J. B. WOODS,
Postmaster General.
