Masonic Dedication.

CLIFT LODGE, WABANA.

Tuesday was a red letter day in the Masonic circle of Wabana, Bell Island. The new Lodge Room in the recently purchased building by the Craft was dedicated and consecrated by the R.W.D.G.M., Bro. J. A. Clift, C.E.E., and Dedicating officers Bro. S. G. Collier, P.D.S.W., Hon. S. D. Blandford, D.G.S.D., W. N. Gray, G.T., and Lieut. Col. R. F. Goodridge, acting as G. I. G., and W. J. Edgar, Grand Secretary. These officers of the Grand Lodge boarded the S.S. Othar at Port George at 10 a.m., accompanied by some twenty members of the Craft, proceeded to Wabana and thence to the Masonic Temple, on Main Street, near the Bank of Nova Scotia and C.L.B. Armoury. At high noon with the solemn ritual of the Masonic order the new Lodge room was consecrated and dedicated to Masonic purposes. The Deputy D. G. Master of Scottish Jurisdiction, Hon. Tasker Cook, was present and assisted in the ceremonies, accompanied by W. Bro. R. G. Ash, P.M., acting as D. J. Secretary. W. Bro. Dr. Cluny Macpherson of St. John's Lodge, Past Master, W. Stewart and G. A. Harvey. After the dedication services the visitors were entertained at luncheon served in the Club rooms on the first floor. The catering and service was excellent being up to the highest class—this being in the care of Bro. Charles Feaver of Clift Lodge. After lunch some souvenir photographs were taken of those present. The afternoon was spent in sight seeing. After tea many of the visitors proceeded to the C.L.B. Armoury for an hour and witnessed the inspection of J. Co. by Lieut. Col. Goodridge, C.L.B., and at 8.30 p.m. the annual installation of Clift Lodge officers took place—these officials were duly placed into office by the D. G. Master, W. Bro. J. A. Clift, assisted by the Wor. Bro. Tasker Cook, of the Scottish Grand Lodge, and W. J. Secretary Edgar of the English Grand Lodge. The officers installed were:—

The D. G. Master, as a mark of special esteem and honour, conferred the rank of D. G. S. D. upon the Rev. John Stead, who is entitled to visit now all meetings of the Grand Lodge under this rank. After the Lodge meeting the usual Masonic Banquet took place, which was conducted by the new W.M., Bro. C. F. Taylor and his officers, in the club rooms. The menu was again of a high order leaving nothing to be desired, and the toast list was as follows: The King, Duke of Connaught, and D. G. Masters, followed by one to the Dedicating Officers, proposed by Bro. Dr. Carnahan, S.D., and responded to by W.

On Tuesday this week, Wabana Bell Island, Company J. was inspected by the Officer Commanding the C. L. B. in Nfld.—Lieut. Col. R. F. Goodridge, who went over for this special purpose. Accompanying Col. Goodridge were Major Williams and Lieut. R. G. Ash. The inspection took place at 7.30 p.m. in the Armoury erected by the Rev. John Stead, Rector of Bell Island, and Major Wm. Lindsay. On arrival at the Armoury J. Co. was on duty and the usual general salute was given the inspecting officer on entering the hall. The Company was under command of Lieut. Gover, a veteran of the Great War, who drilled the lads in various movements, physical and manual. At the close the Colonel addressed the lads and congratulated them on their excellent appearance and smartness—some seventy lads being on the Roll Call. Major Williams also addressed the Company and offered a Miniature Silver Cup for competition amongst Corporals, Lance Corporals and Privates to be won by the lads having the best attendance and good conduct record for the next six months—beginning July first, which prize was gratefully accepted by Major Lindsay on behalf of the lads for competition. Quite a large number of visitors were present for the inspection, amongst whom were many members of the Masonic Fraternity, who happened to be in Bell Island attending the installation services of Clift Lodge. Among the visitors we noticed the Hon. J. A. Clift, K.C., Hon. Tasker Cook, W. J. Edgar, W. N. Gray, S. G. Collier, Rev. Canon Bolt, M.A., Mrs. J. J. Miller (wife of Lieut. Miller) and others. The Hon. Tasker Cook was so pleased with the excellent drill of the lads, that he in a neat speech congratulated the Officers of Bell Island on their work, and tendered them a cheque for one hundred dollars. Cheers were heartily given the Hon. Mr. Cook for his generosity. Mr. Cook stated that his ancestors had lived on Bell Island for over a hundred years, and he was interested in the young islanders for the sake of "Auld Lang Syne." The Band under Bandmaster Martin, were in good form and rendered capital music. It shows what grit and energy can accomplish, when such a magnificent Armoury can be erected and be so useful in a small community. This Armoury, erected by the Brigade, is well built, having a beautiful metal ceiling and substantial floors. It is lit by electricity. A large N.C.O.'s and Bandroom have recently been added. The officers are Rev. John Stead, Major W. Lindsay, Lieut. J. J. Miller, J. J. Tucker and W. Squires. They drill Mondays and Wednesdays and have a Brass Band of about twenty-five, with a Bugle Band of six—the former being instructed by Bandmaster Sergt. H. J. Martin, and the latter by Old Comrade Skeans. A signalling class has also been organized and making good progress under Mr. Chesley Greening, formerly of the Royal Nfld. Regiment. Last Sunday the Company paraded to St. Boniface Church where the Chaplain preached an appropriate sermon. The next event is the long looked for Band Concert organized by Bandmaster Martin, which we feel sure will be an unqualified success. We are glad to hear that the music loving folk of Bell Island have organized a Choral Society and use this Armoury for concert purposes, Mr. Fred J. Jardine, J.P., being Musical director, and Mr. F. Godden being Managing Director. We also note the Bell Island Choral Society will likely give a Concert in July, and we wish them a full measure of success.

There passed peacefully away, this morning, at 8 o'clock, a respected citizen, in the person of Mr. James Goff, of this town, at the venerable age of eighty. The deceased had been afflicted with impairment of sight for some time, previous to his demise, but barring this, he was enjoying fairly normal health. About two weeks ago, he was taken ill, an illness from which he never rallied till death, the great reaper, claimed him for its own. His was the privilege, the happiness and every one of his family present during his last days on earth, to sympathize and encourage and console the good husband and father. A few days previous to his death, his two daughters in religion, of the Presentation Order, were privileged to attend at the bedside of their dying parent (having leave from their Superior). By their filial affection and pious and devoted ministrations the good Sisters helped to calm, soothe and assuage the fears and dread that necessarily accompany the departing spirit ere it makes its exit into that country from whose bourne no traveller returns. Two other of his absent children had also the sad privilege of seeing the parent during his last moments on earth, viz., John, now of Sydney, and James of Heart's Content. The last rites of the Church were administered by his Pastor, Rt. Rev. Mgr. McCarthy, who further rendered him all the consoling aids Holy Mother Church provides for her members at the close of their earthly sojourn. The subject of this obituary was a practical Christian gentleman. Large hearted, and kindly-natured, he had the respect of his fellowmen. His industry and devotedness to duty in his chosen sphere of life—that of tailor—raised him in course of time to such a position in his avocation as to become a merchant tailor, and when he retired some ten years ago from active duties he left to his sons a business second to none outside of the capital. None will deny that in the passing away of James Goff, another worthy and honoured landmark has departed whose life lived faithfully and well will serve as an inspiration to those who need a stimulus over life's difficult ways.

Left to mourn are the following relatives: A widow, Catherine, three daughters, two of whom are Nuns, one Sister M. Alaqueo, of the Presentation Order, Cathedral Square, St. John's; the other, Sister M. De Sales, Presentation Convent, Torbay; Mary Joseph, living in the parental home. The sons comprise John, Merchant-Tailor, now of Sydney; E.D., of Goff Bros., at home, the director of the firm, and James, operator of the Western Union Telegraph Company, Heart's Content. To each and all the sincere sympathy of the community is extended in this their sad hour of bereavement. The funeral takes place this afternoon (Wednesday), when all that is mortal of the late Mr. James Goff, will be consigned to Mother Earth, there to await in hopeful assurance the great Resurrection morn. May his soul rest in peace.

LETTER FROM
MRS. WAKELINTells Remarkable Story of Sickness and Recovery.

Toronto, Ont.—"I suffered greatly from weakness, seemed to be tired all the time, and had no ambition to do anything or go anyplace. My nerves were in bad shape, I could not sleep at night, and then came a breakdown. I read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the newspapers and several of my friends advised me to use it, and it surely put new life into me. Now I am quite able to do all my own work, and I would strongly advise every suffering woman to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial."—Mrs. CHARLES WAKELIN, 272 Christie St., Toronto, Ont.

The makers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have thousands of such letters as that above—they tell the truth, else they could not have been obtained for love or money. This medicine is no stranger—it has stood the test for more than forty years.

If there are any complications you do not understand write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass.
