W. C. T. U. Meets.

The Women's Christian Temperance the 11th of November. Union held their first meeting for the season in the ladies' parlor of Gower Street Church on Thursday evening last. Owing to the unavoidable absence of the President, 1st Vice-Prestdent, Mrs. Johnson occupied the chair. Some well known faces were missing, for the Methodist Missionary ence had important doings the same afternoon. The meeting opened with a hymn, followed by Scripture reading and talk, then prayer. The minutes of June meetings were read and approved. Some cases of want were brought to notice and were to be relieved. Congenial work was found for a young woman just released from prison where she had served a term for vagrancy. The splendid victory for Prohibition in Canada was commented upon. An interesting reading was held over till next meeting which will be the usual one, when officers will be elected for the ensuing year and it is hoped al members will show stock.
