Can't Win a Government.

PEOPLE WANT HARD FACTS.

The present campaign the Government are resorting to is a gross abuse of the Opposition and do not hesitate to appeal to passive and prejudiced minds. The same tactics were pursued in the last election and contributed largely to the success of the Squires-Coaker party by using the people's minds in the same manner. They forget that the Opposition is entirely different from that of the last general election. Squires, Coaker and Campbell are on their trial to-day and answer for their conduct to the people who entrusted them with office. They must give an account of their stewardship; they must give a reason for their re-election and offer some justification for their conduct during the past years. Abuse of political opinion is no argument. What the people want to know is whether the Government have benefited the Squires-Coaker party. We are anxious to know whether Coaker and Squires have made conditions to-day as prosperous as they were in 1919 when they took charge of the country. If not why not? If not what justification is there to re-elect the Government? It has been shown pretty clearly during the past few weeks that Squires and Coaker have made conditions much worse than they found them. When they took over the Government conditions in this country were flourishing, employment was plentiful, and the people were well-off and contented. After three and a half years of Squires-Coaker misrule, what do we find? The whole country to-day is impoverished. The laborers are unemployed, the fishermen's prospects ruined and the country is on the verge of bankruptcy. The Government organs will require to disprove these statements before they succeed in stampeding the people by appeals to passion. A dispassionate and honest statement from their refuting successfully these charges would be much more effective than their campaign of mud-slinging. They can't deny our statement. They have nothing to offer the people but "castle in the air talk" of a Humber Paradise. Turn them out. They're deceiving you again. They can't me trusted.

St. Phillip's Backs Bennett.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir—Please insert these few words in your valuable paper, with regard to a letter that appeared in an issue of the Daily Mail, of the 18th inst., from St. Phillip's. What gall this poor writer must have to give gentlemen like Sir Michael Cashin, Mr. Linegar and Mr. Hunt instructions as to what language they should use on a public platform against their opponents. I would like to tell this West End voter that Sir Michael and colleagues and their supporters in St. Phillip's (which mean 70 per cent. of the people) are not looking for trouble. But of course if this contemptible is trying to make trouble, he will be very likely to get what he is looking for. I would like the Opposition candidates to understand that the writer of that letter is only a bluffer. The people of St. Phillip's are tired of Squires and his Rock and Split Government. They want a change and a change they will have by marking their ballots for Cashin, Linegar and Hunt and Bennett and Better Times.

Yours truly,
 ST. PHILIP'S VOTER.

Rock Shed Workers Were Refused

CONSIDERATION BY GOVERNMENT.

SQUIRES AND CAMPBELL IGNORE TELEGRAMS AND BENNETT'S PLEA ON THEIR BEHALF.

A few days ago the Telegram through its columns asked the Government to make some provision for the hundreds of deserving men who are employed rock breaking and snow shovelling as many of them can ill afford to be idle during the next two weeks. We offered two suggestions which we thought would be feasible either one of them would greatly help these men to secure the common necessities of life for the period between nomination day and polling day but no attention was paid to same with the result the men were discharged on Saturday morning.

Great News From the Districts.

ALL FALLING INTO LINE FOR A CHANGE.

Most encouraging reports reach us from Trinity Bay indicating a big victory for Mr. Stone and his colleagues. As to Placentia and St. Mary's the Bennett candidates who visited the city Friday and went to Placentia the following morning they have no doubt of a sweeping majority in their favour. The people of that loyal old District will have nothing to do with Coakerism. They rejected Coaker in 1919 and it would have been a fortunate thing for the country if the whole country had done the same. Conception Bay and Trinity district as well as the South and Western Districts will fall into line this time with Placentia and St. Mary's. They all realize the damage done the country by Coaker and his insane fish policy and are determined to vote for Bennett and Better Times.

If the Government think they can stampede the fishermen on the Humber proposition, they will be sadly disappointed. The Humber industry.

at its best will not appeal strongly to those who have the salt of the sea in their blood. It is the fisheries that appeal to them, and it is by the fisheries that they intend to support themselves and their families. This is why Bennett's efforts to encourage the fisheries by a bounty will appeal to the fishermen throughout the country. Coaker having bungled the fisheries by his notorious Fish Regulations seems to be afraid or ashamed to refer to them. There is nothing being done by the Government to encourage the fishermen or promote the interest of our most important industry. All we are told is that if Squires and Coaker are re-elected they will give the fishermen employment on the Humber. If the fisheries be neglected and the fishermen discouraged at their work, a dozen Humber deals could not offset the damage done to the country. Attention to the fisheries is what the fishermen look for. Supplies for the fisheries are what they require. These things will be accomplished by Bennett, and the practical business men associated with him—men who know from experience what is best for the general welfare of the country. The merchants will help Bennett in his policy to bring about BETTER TIMES!

"Three Live Ghosts."

A wave of excitement recently agitated the busiest thoroughfare of London when a burly policeman held up the traffic to allow the passage of an aristocratic-looking gentleman, immediately tailored wheeling the latest thing in expensive baby-carriages, to which was attached a sheep which showed an obvious disinclination to cross the road.

Absorbed and quite unperturbed by the amazement caused by his unheralded arrival, the gentleman steered his charge to the opposite side walk, and by the time the crowd had recovered from its astonishment, had apparently vanished into thin air.

At the same moment two cameras which had been taking a record of this unusual scene from the inside of a covered motor lorry ceased to grind, and George Pittmaurice, famous Paramount producer congratulated himself on having successfully secured a particularly effective and difficult "shot."

The episode showed Cyril Chadwick in his impersonation of "Stoody" in "Three Live Ghosts," a Paramount picture which will be shown at the Majestic theatre to-day. Anna Q. Nilsson and Norman Kerry are the featured players.

Always a Prized Possession

It is a noteworthy fact that Buick owners prize their cars so highly that they are reluctant to part with them even for new Buicks.

They hold for their Buicks the same sincere attachment that they might for any personal belonging which has proven indispensable to their daily comfort or which has contributed vitally to many of their most happy experiences.

Owners retain this life-long affection for Buick not only because Buick dependability and comfort more than satisfy every motoring desire, but because these same qualities find added expression in each succeeding Buick that they buy.
