

SETTLEMENT OF LAWSUIT BY MARRIAGE.—At the Tipperary assizes held at Clonmel an action on title to recover a portion of the lands of Rosegreen has been brought to a sudden and agreeable termination. While the defendant, a good looking young woman, named Miss O'Brien, was under cross-examination, the plaintiff was ordered to confront her with reference to a portion of her testimony. Mr. Clark, Q. C., at this stage of the proceedings, whispered to the jury, and much merriment was occasioned. Mr. Hemphill inquired the cause of it. Mr. Clark—It just strikes me that there is a pleasant and easy way to terminate this lawsuit. The plaintiff appears to be a respectable young man and this is a very nice young woman—(laughter). They can both get married and live happily on the farm. If they go on with the proceedings it will all be frittered away between the lawyers, who, I am sure, are not ungrateful enough to wish the marriage may not come off. The young lady, on being interrupted, blushed, and said she was quite willing to marry the plaintiff. Mr. Clark (to the latter)—Will you marry this young woman? Plaintiff—Most undoubtedly—(great laughter). Mr. Clark—It is odd this course was not before adopted. The suggestion came to me by instinct on seeing the young couple—(laughter). Mr. Gibson said the marriage should take place at once. Mr. Hackett—Give him a long day, my lord, (laughter). Mr. Gibson—The young lady is very anxious for the marriage. Mr. Hemphill—Yes, but the weather is very hot at present—my Scotch next—(renewed laughter). If the plaintiff breaks his promise, a good action for breach of promise will lie against him. A verdict was subsequently entered for plaintiff on condition of his promising to marry defendant within two months, a stay of execution being put on the verdict till the marriage ceremony is completed. Mr. Hemphill—The case is like the comedy "All's well that ends well"—(laughter). The counsel gave the young lady such a "chaffing" on her consent, which many in Court thought should first be obtained by plaintiff, that she left the Court in tears.

When we reflect that a power of endurance can be imparted to the brain, and that weak minds have been restored to strength by FELLOW'S Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, we cannot but conclude that the subtle power is really ponderable matter, from the fact that ingredients are supplied which render it support and give it vitality. Persons who clearly have should preserve their balance of power by using the Syrup.
