CHICAGO, Ill., April 4,
The wheat market is in the hands of the bulls to-day. The trade was treated to fifteen minutes of intense excitement about the middle of the session, the result of which, when added to a gain of 1½c frem Monday's close, from the opening showed a net appreciation of 3c per bu. There was a slight recession at the outside point of the day, but final figures were 2½c to 2½c higher than those of Monday. Corn closed higher with wheat, the net gain for the day being ½c to ½c. Oats closed ½c to ½c up. Provisions were strong. May pork closed 52½c higher than Monday. May lard, 39c higher, and May ribs, 27½c.

LONDON AND ENVIRONS -The recent bicycle law suit of Flack vs. London cost the city $175.

-Dr. Hodge has obtained a permit to make a $300 addition to his residence. -Mr. James Leslie, of Kingston, late of London West, is recovering from his severe illness. -Miss Jennie Bridgeman, of Hyman street, has returned home after a two weeks' visit in St. Thomas.

-Wm. Morrison has donated several trumpet plants to the city for planting around the dead trees in Queen's Park. -Inspector Bell says that the dog pound at Queen's Park has been renovated and is now in proper condition to receive all tag-

-A blazing chimney at Mr. B. McCann's residence, 28 Stanley street, gave the firemen a run this morning. April is giving the fire brigade plenty of work.

-Engineer Graydon has signified his intentien of not pushing the clause of the proposed bicycle bylaw giving right of way and precedence to wagons and carriages over evclists.

-A concert will be given in the London West Methodist Church to night by the married men of the congregation. They have prepared a good programme which is, they claim, entirely new.

-Messrs. Magee, McKillop & Murphy received four tenders this morning for the purchase of drygoods to the value of $4,000, consigned to Spittal, Burn & Gentleman, but stopped in transit. No tender has yet been accepted.

-Somebody drove off with Dr. Geo. H. Wilson's rig last night as it was standing in front of his door. The doctor discovered a man driving it on Stanley street about midnight, but the unknown took to his heels and escaped when he saw the owner.

-The London Cooking School has closed after a very successful season. The teacher. Miss C. V. McLean, has left for Toronto, where she will visit the school and then return to New York. The school will reopen early in the season with all the newest ideas of English and American cookery.

-Daniel Williams and Washington Doxtater, two members of the county constabulary, were arrested on Tuesday afternoon by Elijah Ninham. They were charged with supplying liquor to Indians on the reserve, and when brought before Squire Lockwood were bailed to appear on

-Rev. D. Spencer, St. Thomas, writes: Revs. Read and Coombs are holding evangelistic services in my church. The audience room is filled every night and great interest is manifest. They are men of God and their work is solid and good. They are to be in London (Talbot Street Church) the last half of April. All London should welcome them."

-The funeral of the late Mrs. Galbraith, wife of Mr. Wm. Galbraith, yardmaster on the G. T. R., took place at 7:30 this morning from the family residence, 217 Richmond street, to the Grand Trunk station. The cortege was very long, being attended by the many friends of the family, while a large number of the railway employes marched at the head of the hearse. The remains were conveyed to Ingersoll by the 8 o'clock train, where services were conducted in the Roman Catholic Church. The pall-bearers were all employes of the company from this Violin solos by Messrs. Charles Manness, J. Cresswell, and L. Latimore and Mrs. Mc. Cully; songs by Messrs. J. Halloway, How-lett, W. Gower, and little Miss Grayson; musical selections by Messrs. J. Halloway, How-lett, W. Gower, and recitations by Mr. T. Hogg. During the intermission refreshments were served. The energetic commit. tee having charge of the affair were Messrs. J. W. Smith, C.R., J. Ryckman, T. S. Newton, J. Brownlee, Jas. Boyle, W. Smith, W. G. Ford, and Thomas Bull, secretary. London Jail Statistics.

The annual report of the inspection of prisons, submitted by the Provincial Secretary yesterday, shows that in London there was an increase in the number of prisoners committed—1892, 497; 1893, 537. Of the latter number 46 were women. The number of those in 1893 who were illiterate is 56; temperate, 259; intemperate, 226. For drunkenness in 1893 there were committed 218, an increase of 68 over 1892. The jail cost $400 more in 1893 than in

Two inspections of London jail were made during the year, and upon both occasions the institution was found in excellent condition. "The only employment for prisoners is the sawing of wood," says the report. "The books were properly kept." Here is a comparative table of interest: Prisoners committed-1891, 579; 1892, 497; 1893, 562. Greatest number confined at any one time-1891, 45; 1892, 44; 1893, 47. Number of recommittals-1891, 235; 1892, 203; 1893, 191. Total cost of maintaining jail —1891, $7,305 80; 1892, $6,281 37; 1893, at Night. BRANTFORD, April 5.—"Jack the Hugger" has been plying his blackguardly tricks in this city for some months past, and women and girls are afraid to be on the streets alone after nightfall. Tuesday night P. C. Wallace, who was on duty in plain clothes arrested a barber named Poole for the offense. A young lady at the police court yesterday testified that at 9 p.m. a man had thrown both arms round her while she was walking along the public street. She thought accused was the delinquent. The latter was running at the time the officer caught him, but states that it was to get out of the rain. He strenuously denies the charge, and after giving evidence in his own behalf was allowed out on bail.

"JACK THE HUGGER."

Man Arrested at Brantford on a Charge of Molesting Women

South Carolina Methods.

DARLINGTON, S. C., April 4 .- At the Cleveland House here to-day Dr. Spain shot and killed a negro cook who had reported him as being one of those who were concerned in the dispensary transactions which caused the recent riots. Spain was arrested.

Jumped From the Train.

GUELPH, April 5.—The insane woman. Amy McArthur, who was committed to the Guelph jail on charge of theft by Dray. ton magistrates, leaped from the train when being brought here last evening. The woman escaped from the custody of Constable Flath and jumped from the train when it was going 40 miles an hour. She was not burt.

Public Accounts Committee.

OTTAWA, April 5 .- The public accounts committee met and organized this morning for the session by electing Baker, of Missisquoi, chairman. Mr. Mulock moved to take the evidence under oath of Haggart, Tupper and Wood if the Government objected. Mr. Mulock insisted that without oath the evidence would be a farce, and that inquiry into the expenditure of $40. 000,000 was a serious matter. Decision was deferred until next meeting.

THE BIG SALE NOW IN PROGRESS.

A veritable sensation in the mercantile community has been created by the purchase of the immense stock of Spittal, Burn & Gentleman by Messrs. T. F. Kingsmill & Co. at the low figure of 59 cents on the dollar. The immense outlay of the Messrs. Kingsmill in acquiring this fine stock, valued at over $68,000, is a stroke in keeping with the vigorous enterprise of the firm. They are now rushing off the goods at the old stand of Spittal, Burn & Gentleman, and the spacious store has been daily crowded with bargain-seekers, who find in the sale a golden opportunity. The character of the stock held by Messrs. Spittal, Burn & Gentleman was, as is well known, of a very high class. Yesterday once or twice the outer door had to be locked for a period in order to prevent over-crowding.

St. Paul's Cathedral is to be re-opened after the restoration on Sunday next. There are to be three services-at 11 a.m., when the Lord Bishop of Huron will preach the inauguration sermon; 3 p.m., sermon by Rev. Principal Miller, of Huron College, and 7 p.m., when the Lord Bishop of Toronto has kindly consented to preach. Collection at all the services will be in aid of the building fund, and it is hoped will be very liberal. The organ, which has been enlarged and fitted with electric and pneumatic action, will be heard at each service, and the electric light installation will be used in the evening. 45 m

ELOODSHED !

Deadly Rioting in the Coke Regions of Pennsylvania.

Twelve Hungarians Killed-Strikers Besieging Company's Office-Terrible Conflicts Feared.

PITTSBURG, Pa., April 4 .- A special from Uniontown, Pa., says Chief Engineer Jos. H. Paddock, of the H. C. Frick Company, was brutally murdered by 200 riotous Hungarians at the Davison coke works at Connellsville at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The murderers were pursued by a sheriff's posse. One of the fleeing Huns was shot and instantly killed. Two others were fatally wounded. Two other workmen in the region who refused to join the mob were assaulted and fatally hurt. They were carried away by their associates.

A Connellsville dispatch says: Late reports from Bradford says ten Hungarians were killed or fatally injured to-night by the deputies and citizens who were pursuing them for the murder of Paddock. A sensational rumor was received here at Il o'clock to the effect that the clerks. company officials and deputies in the offices of the Frick and McClure companies are besieged by a mob of 1,500 strikers. A telephone message from the company's store partly confirms the rumor. BLOODSHED!

CORNELLSVILLE, Pa., April 5. - The strikers in the vicinity of the works are awaiting the arrival of reinforcements. As soon as the Scottdale crowd arrive trouble will begin.

CORNELLSVILLE (bulletin) .- A report has just reached this place from Valley saying that a fierce riot occurred there this morning and that twelve Hungarians were killed outright and several injured. CHARGED WITH MURDER.

Scotdale, Pa., April 5 .- Theo. R. Davis, president of the Miners' Association, was arrested here last night charged with murder, it being alleged he led the mob that killed Chief Engineer Paddock. He is being conveyed to Uniontown in a closed carriage. Three thousand strikers are now marching to the Moyer works.

THE STRIKERS MARCHING. CORNELLSVILLE, April 5 .- The strikers, 1,000 strong, are now marching towards the Hill Farm works.

A small force of deputies is on duty at the works, and others are being sworn in as rapidly as they can be secured. After passing Hill Farm the mob will march to the rendezvous west of the town on the other side of the river, when they will be joined by 400 or 500 strikers from the vicinity of Elm Grove and Vanderbilt. The march will then be continuee to Adelaide and Broadford works. The citizens here and at other towns along the Youghiogheny are thoroughly armed, and there is grave talk of organizing a posse and seizing the bridges over the river to prevent the strikers from crossing. This would hasten the crisia.

This Lets Magee Out.

NEW YORK, April 4 .- The verdict of the jury in the Fuller case is that Miss Fuller came to her death by a shot fired from a pistol, but who fired the pistol we are unable to determine.

Judge Beach, in the Supreme Court this morning, granted a writ of habeas corpus in the case of Joseph S. Magee, who is held for the shooting of Martha J. Fuller. The writ is made returnable to-morrow, when Magee's discharge will be asked for.

HEROIC LITTLE GIRL.

GUILFORD, Ind., April 5 .- While two little girls, daughters of Farmer Collier, living two miles from town, were crossing the railroad on the way to school, one of them caught her foot fast in the frog at the switch. The other went to her assistance, liquor licenses in the east riding of Middle- train appeared around the curve. With a self-sacrificing heroism not to be expected in one of her age, the little girl bravely stood beside her helpless sister, suffering Nilestown; John Charles, Belmont; Mrs. Mapson, Belmont; W. J.
