Fletcher safe at first, McInnis on the bag. In order that these pictures be distributed as soon as possible, a special messenger had to leave the grounds at the end of the first inning to make train connections. In this picture Fletcher is seen going back to the bag when Bender has thrown to catch him after he had singled safely. Fletcher was out a moment later, stealing.

DEMAREE MAY GET CHANCE TO STOP MACKMEN TODAY

McGraw May Pin His Final Hopes on Cartoonist Pitcher in Forth Game of Series—Bender or Brown May Oppose Him.

[Canadian Press.] Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 10.—Low-hanging clouds this morning threatened rain for the fourth game of the world's series. The forecast for the day, however, promises fair weather. The playing field at Shibe Park is in good condition.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 10.—With one team determined to even up the series, and the other anxious to improve the advantage won yesterday, the New York Giants and the Philadelphia Athletics were prepared today to battle their hardest for the fourth game in the world's baseball championship series. Victory for the American League champions would mean that they would have only one more game to win to carry off the blue ribbon of the ball field, while a defeat for the champions of the National League would make it quite doubtful if they could recover sufficiently to win three straight and baseball fame.

Now that two of the New York pitchers have met defeat at the hands of the Athletics, Philadelphia fans felt more comfortable and were confident that the home team would triumph today. The victory yesterday of Bush, Connie Mack's youthful twirler, over the veteran Tressau, has measurably increased the optimism of the Athletic adherents as to the final result of the series.

The weather outlook for the day promised fair skies in the afternoon. Last evening another big throng gathered at Shibe Park to wait in line all night for the bleacher gates to open this morning. It was an even larger crowd than that which waited in the drizzling rain for Wednesday's game, due perhaps to the improvement in the weather. The moon was seen last night for the first time this week, and an occasional star was visible through the thin clouds. All along the line of waiting fans could be heard praises of Leslie Bush, and predictions that more of Mack's young pitchers would give a good account of themselves before the series ended.

Many of the Athletic adherents believed that Shawkey would be the pitching choice of the White Elephants' manager, and figured that he would be equally as puzzling to the Giant batters as was Bush yesterday. Bender, however, was anxious to go in, and there is a strong possibility that his wish might be granted.

Only Demaree Left. The Athletics have now faced the pitching of Mathewson, Marquard, Crandall and Tressau, three of whom are the pick of the New York's twirling staff, while the Giants have batted against Bender, Plank and Bush. Each of the Philadelphia pitchers finished his game without assistance, but of the New York moundsmen only Mathewson, winner of the wonderful ten-innings victory against Plank, completed a game. Manager Mack has Shawkey and Brown in reserve, while Manager McGraw has Demaree, but neither manager has given any intimation who would be used. Mack said that he was "not worrying a bit about pitchers."

"The result of yesterday's game bore out my claim that we had young pitchers who could be compared to any on the Giants' staff," said the Athletic manager. "Of course, a club that is equipped with hitters does not have to depend so much on good pitching to win. Mathewson twirled a wonderful game against us, but I do not think one pitcher can win a world's series. The other pitchers in our younger set are just as eager to show in the series. Bush was actually disappointed because he had a three-run lead when he went in the box yesterday. Anyone could win this kind of a game," he said. "That's the kind of material I have on the pitching staff. It's all I can do to keep them on the bench."

McGraw Not Discouraged. Despite the seeming advantage held by Philadelphia in the two victories to one, Manager McGraw appeared not at all dismayed, and declared his men had just begun to fight. Should they win today the series will once more be even, two all. Mathewson probably would be ready to pitch again in New York tomorrow, and it is likely to be opposed by one of Mack's youngsters, in case Bender was Mack's choice today.

It is believed by many that Manager McGraw would depend upon Demaree to lead his team to victory, although Marquard, who was taken out of the game after pitching five innings in the opening contest in New York, was said to be anxious to redeem himself, and may be given an opportunity.

"Chief" Meyers, the Giants' star catcher, whose finger was sprained during practice here on Wednesday, was not in condition to take up his duties behind the bat, but McGraw had able substitutes in McLean and Wilson, either of whom was likely to be the New York manager's choice for today. McLean's ankle suffered no further in yesterday's game, and he is expected to play.

Residence Owners Warned. As a result of the overcrowding of the roofs of residences bordering Shibe Park on two sides while Wednesday's game was on, the chief of the bureau of building inspection served notice on the proprietors warning them that such crowding was dangerous, and that the owners would be held strictly responsible for any accident that might occur. It is not believed, however, that this will to any great extent deter the householders from again packing their roofs with spectators today.

For the first game of the series one householders said that he had made more than $100 by selling seats on his roof. Today many residents were again preparing their houses for occupation.

The probable batting order: New York—Herzog, 3b.; Doyle, 2b.; Fletcher, s.s.; Burns, 1. f.; Shafer, c. f.; Murray, 2. f.; McLean, c.; Merkle, 1b.; Demaree, p.

Philadelphia—E. Murphy, r. f.; Oldring, 1. f.; Collins, 2b.; Baker, 3b.; Melins, 1b.; Strunk, c. f.; Barry, s. s.; Schang, 1b.; Bender, p.

Brainard, Minn., Oct. 9.—One hundred and six enthusiastic citizens of Brainard gathered at the telegraph office this afternoon and signed their names to the following telegram to their fellow townsman, Leslie Bush:

"The undersigned extend our hearty congratulations for your victory today, and also the work of your side partner, Bender, both of Brainard. The old town is and will be wide open in celebration. PETROLEA OBJECTS TO CHANGES IN SCHEDULE

Oil Town Club Has Two Hard Games With London and Sarnia Within Three Days.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Petrolia, Oct. 10.—Petrolia has come out on the small end of the horn as usual in the rugby schedule, when Secretary Livingstone, of the O. R. F. U., is managing affairs. The local team must play on Oct. 18 in London, and then again play on Monday, Oct. 20, in Petrolia with Sarnia. As the teams are well matched, these games will be hard ones, and only one day intervenes, in which the players will only stiffen up, as they cannot practice on Sunday. It looks as if Petrolia has been made the "goat." The question is asked here, why doesn't Secretary Livingstone let Sarnia or London suffer for once?

THISTLE CLUB MEETING. The meeting of the London Thistle Club bowlers, which was to have been held this evening, has been called off, and instead will be held on Oct. 24. The curlers' meeting, set for Oct. 17, will be held as arranged. The plans for amalgamating the two clubs are nearly completed, and it is expected that at the meeting on Oct. 24 the officers for the joint club will be elected.

FLY TO POLE. Captain Amundsen Takes Aeroplane On Arctic Expedition.

[Canadian Press.] New York, Oct. 10.—Captain Roald Amundsen, the Polar explorer, is reported to have secured an aeroplane to take with him on his Polar explorations. According to a Frankfort dispatch, Amundsen himself will take his place in the machine and make his Arctic dash through the air.

HOUSE WAS DAMAGED. [Special to The Advertiser.] Sarnia, Oct. 10.—Fire slightly damaged a house on Davis street last night. The house was vacant and the origin of the fire is a mystery. The alarm was turned in shortly after 8 o'clock.

LESLIE "JOE" BUSH, Connie Mack's 20-year-old pitcher, who held the Giants to five hits Thursday, as he is seen by Cartoonist Randall.

Forest, Oct. 10.—Robt. Mack, of Vancouver, is here visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. James Baker, of Winona, visited the latter's brothers, Hophni and Robert McFarlane, recently. They were former residents of this vicinity, and in visiting old friends were most agreeably surprised at the changed condition of farming, fruit culture and small farms having taken the place of the large farms, and the more ordinary lines of agriculture prevailing in their time here.

Mr. Anderson, warden of the county; Dr. Fairbank, of Petrolia, and Mayor Pettipiece, of Forest, are attending a provincial convention on railway taxation being held at Toronto, as representatives from the county.

Dr. Hoffman visited with his father in Aymer recently.

Rev. D. J. Cornish attended a conference of the archdeaconry of London at Luan on Wednesday and today, taking part in the program. Mrs. Cornish accompanied him.

Rev. J. W. and Mrs. Patterson, of Washington State, are visiting at J. O. Shepherd's.

Mrs. John "Buffy" visited her sister, Mrs. Chas. Corey, of Inwood, recently, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Nell, of Plympton, and Mr. Nell.

Most of the public school teachers are attending the East Lambton Teachers' Institute, which meets in Petrolia today and tomorrow.

This neighborhood is suffering extremely for the want of rain. In the country the land is parched and dry, and the roads are inches deep with dust in some places. Citizens in the town are going dry, and everywhere the need of rain is plainly seen.

Rev. Amos A. Holzen, of St. Louis, Mo., recently converted from Judaism to Christianity, has accepted a call to the Forest Baptist Church.
