Brantford Manager Cuts His Squad Down Quite a Bit.

WILL PLAY A GAME TODAY

Red Sox Will Stack Up Against W. O. B. L. Team in Brantford Today.

Brantford. April 24.—Five blue slips were handed out this morning and the Red Sox roster is smaller by that num ber. Further releases will be made Sat-day night, by which time the regular team will be about selected. The five team will be about selected. The five let out this morning were Johnson and Nichol, outfielders, from Toronto; Rice, catcher, and Hallbach, third baseman, from Meriden, Coun., and Carr, outfielder, from Springfield, Ohio. One reason why the releases were made so early in the season is that a number of these players have chances to join other teams at the present time, which they would not have within another week and the not have within another week and the local management did not wish to keep the players here when they could land jobs elsewhere. A good workout was held this afternoon, and tomorrow the Red Sox will play the Eagle Place Stars, the Brantford entry in the W. O. B. L.
