Toronto, Oct. 16.—Although there was a fair aggregate of business transacted on the local exchange this morning, the bulk of the trading was done in three stocks, Barcelona, Steamships common and Toronto Railway. The price changes in this group were very narrow, with Barcelona selling between 7½ and 7½, with the close at the latter. Steamships transactions were all made at 21, while Toronto Railway fluctuated between 90 and 90½, with the last sale at 90.

In the unlisted section Page-Hersey continued its upward movement, selling at 70 this morning, a 3-point advance from Saturday. This represents an advance of 15 points within the past week. Oil stocks were quiet. Sales.
