The steps of the church were covered with red cloth, and were lined by an eager crowd of people. The bridegroom, attended by his brother, Lord Marcus Beresford. The bride entered the church leaning on the arm of her step-son, the young Duke of Marlborough. The bride was dressed in a dove gray coat and skirt of brocaded satin, with white lace waistcoat and cuffs with diamond buttons, a white bonnet with gray chiffons and a magnificent white veil. She carried a large silver prayer book. As the principals took up their positions the choir sang a bridal hymn and the service commenced. The Rev. James Edgar Sheppard, honorary chaplain to the Queen and sub-dean of the chapels royal, officiated, assisted by the Rev. David Anderson, rector of St. George's Church. The service was fully choral and occupied half an hour. At its conclusion the party went to the vestry, where the bride and bridegroom were congratulated by crowds of friends. After the wedding ceremony a luncheon was served at the London residence of the Duchess, No. 3 Carlton House Terrace. Lord and Lady Beresford left during the afternoon for the country seat, Deepdene, Dorking, where the honeymoon was spent.

THE WALLER CASE. The United States Ambassador at Paris has received very pointed and definite instructions from Washington regarding the case of Mr. John L. Waller, formerly U.S. Consul at Tamatave, Island of Madgaascar, now imprisoned in France under a 20-year sentence, imposed by a courtmartial on the ground that he was in communication with the Hovas. Mr. Eustis has verbally and in writing communicated his instructions to the French Minister of Foreign Affairs, M. Hanotaux, but the latter has not yet replied to these communications. The foregoing would indicate that the United States Government received from Madagascar the report of the U. S. Consul there in regard to Mr. Waller's case, that the conclusions drawn from it justify such intervention, and that it will probably result in a fresh joint inquiry.
