vocacy he brought some really clever intel-ectual gifts. The Uncrowned King specially lectual gifts. The Uncrowned King specially trusted him; be was a worthy henchman; and in his capacity as Parnellite whip he did yeoman service for the late chief. Mr. Power was not unknown on this side of the Atlantic. Several times he visited the United States in the interests of Home Rule, and a year or two ago he paid a flying visit in the same interest to Canada. Although an outsame out that he was the nominee of labor and that settled it.

Perhaps labor appreciates such blind serviced by those who differed from him on that the rung and their rooms, which in their old quarters of Commons. He served his party faithfully faithfully of Commons has a character new to us, but he is likely to us, but he i cause of his fitness. It partages some was one gentlemantly and was an unquestioned power in the lobbies of the House domaining a man with faint praise to give him and well, and though many of the Irish members did not see eye to eye with him on many points, they, and even his political opposents, will regret the cutting off of a bright and promising career. He was in the zenith of his power, and his fudden demise is the more to be regretted as it occurred fairning his noneymoon. What result his removal may have on the Parnellities remains to be seen. At the last general election Mr. Ri mard Power was returned unopposed. Most likely there will be a trial of strength for Mr. Parnell. But things have on the Parnellities and the McCarthy-lices. Waterford city was always a tower of strength for Mr. Parnell. But things have changed and the situation is different now. Changed and the situation is different now.

The World is prepared to endorse all that strength of mir. Parnell. But things have changed and, the situation is different now. The suction will be watched with interest by all parties.

The Tory papers roundly condemed Mr. Laurier for his floston speech and the Grit papers, missprebending the ground of complaint, made a great noise when Mr. Chaplean set out for Providence, Rode Lisand, to address a large gathering of merchants and public men. "Look at the Tory Secretary of State," they cried, "crossing the line to de exactly what Mr. Laurier has done, and yet he is not condemned for it?" The cases are not in any sense parallel, further than that both men made speeches across the line. They are both good speakers, and as speakers were a bound to refige circles for the sing of the service. This is a free country, and offices for his fast of the restrict of the state of the sta

THAT RIFLE BANGE.

Col. Otter Says all the Military Author ties Were Consulted—Capt. Manley Speaks Only for Himself.

It will be remembered that at the last meeting of the Parks and Gardens Committee the matter of choosing a new rifle range was up for discussion. A letter was read Gardens Committee from Col. Otter:

In reply to your letter of the 26th inst., respecting the selection of a site for the new rifle range, I would respectfully refer the Committee on Parks and Gardens to the proposed agreement adopted some weeks ago by the City Council in which I am, as Deputy-Adjutant General, mamed as the officer who shall on the part of the militia force approve of the site.

As representing that force I am, you may be certain, acting in what I command of the corps most interested in the matter, and in corroboration of this I would refer your committee to the Major-General commanding officers of the Toronto force and Lieut.-Colonel Jones, representing the Ontario Riffe Association.

Respecting Captain Manley's complaint, while he is no doubt entitled to his own opinion as to the simbolity of the site named by me, he has no authority in any shape or form to represent either his own or any other corps in the matter.

A Committee was appointed to work in connection with the Gladstone Portrait Fund Committee. It was composed of the follow-
