EUROPEAN NEWS.

It is confidently reported that Sir Richard King will succeed to the Cape command, and we can assure our readers there is no truth in the rumour that Sir Charles Adam is going to the Mediterranean.

IRELAND.

Mr. Wm. Stephen Stables, son of the Bishop of Exeter, has obtained a Vice-Chancellor's prize in Trinity College, for a composition on the subject of the "Milk of Human Kindness." We have had frequent occasions to record the literary honors obtained by this young gentleman.

LEAP. EXTRAORDINARY.—On Wednesday Col. Thesier was riding a high-spirited horse along the carriage-drive on the south side of Hyde Park, when near the bridge, by the side of the river, the horse became suddenly restive; Col. Thesier applied his reins, when the horse sprang forward furiously, and on the bridge plunged violently, endeavoring to throw his rider, but without effect. At length the animal made a sudden spring, and actually leaped over the parapet of the bridge on to the green sward beneath, a height of twenty feet. The gallant Col., however, retained his seat, and the horse alighted on his feet, neither the Col. nor his horse receiving the slightest injury. A similar circumstance occurred to a private of the Life Guards, a few months since, proceeding from the Knights-bridge barracks to the Horse Guards, and he also fortunately escaped in a similar manner.

A vacancy is likely to occur in the representation of the County of Monaghan, Lord Rossmore's health being in a most precarious state.

Barbarous Conduct.—A young man of the name of English lately married a milk woman, in the employ of Joseph Gubbins, Esq., Kil-trash, in this county. His relations considered the match beneath him. On Friday evening last, when English brought his wife to his mother's house, the mother and brothers attacked him and his wife in so shocking and brutal a manner, that the eye of the latter was knocked out, and she was otherwise so dreadfully wounded that her life is despaired of. The husband died of the wounds he received. The husband died on Wednesday.—Lincoln Reporter.

Listen to facts as they are calmly reported in well-informed circles. It is said a communication had been made from the commissioners of Woods and Forests, through Sir Frederick Watson, to the King of Hanover, respecting that certain arrangements consequent on the marriage of the Queen, rendered it necessary that the Crown should resume the possession of the apartments occupied by him as Duke of Cumberland.

This communication was met by a direct refusal from his Hanoverian Majesty. Subsequently, as we hear it, a letter was addressed by the need of our Government to King Ernest, informing him that the apartments in question were expressly designed by Queen Victoria for a residence for the Duchess of Kent. But this offer did not move his Majesty, and his answer was a positive refusal to relinquish the possession of the apartments for the use of the august mother of our Sovereign.

We understand that Viscount Palmerston has selected Mr. Alcock to be the British Commissioner for the settlement of the claims of the British military and naval officers on the Portuguese Government.—Edinburgh Observer.

CALTON HILL.—We are glad to observe, that a little more attention now appears to be paid by our civic rulers, to the farther improvement and embellishment of the Calton Hill. The ground to be east and west of Burns' Monument is about to be enclosed & laid out in ornamental shrubbery.

Lord Abercromby.—We are happy to announce that the complete attack to which Lord Abercromby was subjected, has yielded to medical treatment. He is now, we understand, considerably better, and the fear of a white danger is removed.

We have been informed that upwards of 2500 of the lithograph print, representing the "Bible of Bogue" in canonicals, have been sold; and the second of a series will appear in a few days.

Glass Cloth.—Among the specimens shown by Mr. Clarke at the Assembly Rooms, between the exhibition of the microscope and polio-scope, we were much struck with the magnificent specimens of glass cloth. This curious and beautiful fabric was invented in Paris, and is now manufactured in London by Messrs. Williams and Sorey, who are reported to have expended about ten thousand pounds upon the patent and requisite machinery. The glass is spun by beating it to softness, and then drawing it out to the finest thread, small bundles of these are tied together, and then "drawn out" with silk. The cloth is perfectly flexible, and the patterns of the most brilliant and gorgeous description. It has been used as a substitute for paper and for curtains. It has also been employed as an article of dress, and this process, the hall-room at St. James's and at the Tuilleries. One woman only has been made of it in Scotland, which was worn by the daughter of a Scotch nobleman, named just now, since the sea of an illustrious Duke. The glass is made to assume the richest colours by imparting the various metallic oxides before it is spun, and presents the appearance of the most brilliant gold and silver.—Ibid.

SPREAD OF TEMPERANCE.—The Rev. Mr. Mathew resumed his labors on Tuesday at the rate of the Custom-house. He commenced, as on the preceding day, at eleven o'clock. The crowds about the building during the day were enormous. A stream and a counter-stream of human beings, of all classes and ages, moved along through the adjoining streets, from ten o'clock till five.

A strong body of mounted and foot police constables were on the ground keeping order. Each batch of persons to whom the pledge was administered comprised a much larger number than any brought on on Monday.

The number of persons admitted members of the Temperance Society on Monday and Tuesday approaches 50,000. It does not altogether reach 50,000, but it is not far from it. We did not observe many infirm and distressed persons on the spot yesterday as on the previous day.

One poor man who had travelled upwards of 10 miles from Westchester, in order that he might be healed of his disease by the hand of Father Mathew, was amongst the supplicants for this salutary grace. The reverend gentleman, partly to avoid the pressure of the multitude, partly to destroy the illusion of his supernatural powers, refused behind the pillars immediately after administering the pledge to the people, much to their disappointment, for they continued on the pavement roaring most imploringly for him, till they were put aside by the police to make way for another congregation of supplicants. The assemblage on Tuesday, and indeed on Monday, though vast and almost incalculable, embracing the most heterogeneous materials of human nature, was characterized by the most solemnity and correctness of demeanor. The majority of the thousands were women; they flocked forward in thousands, from brightly innocent childhood to decrepit and aged old age. The reverend gentleman addressed the people frequently, and in a very intelligible, homely language, described to them the inestimable blessings derivable from teetotal temperance. He furnishes in himself one of the best illustrations of his principle, for at the termination of his task for the day he appeared to be as fresh, active, and as little excited, as when he commenced it in the morning. He is about fifty years of age, but does not look more than forty. His countenance denotes him to be a good humoured, good natured person, with not a little of "the milk of human kindness" in his disposition. He announced his intention of proceeding immediately on his temperance crusade to England. At half-past four o'clock he was escorted to the Imperial Hotel by a detachment of the city constables, amidst the cheers and shouts of the crowd.

Yesterday notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, the number who took the total abstinence pledge exceeded considerably that of the two preceding days. According to the accounts kept by the police sergeants, the number was—on Monday, 4777—Tuesday, 5158—Yesterday, 10,277—Total, 20,212. Allowing for mis-statements, the amount may be taken at 20,000.

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, if we may so designate a heavy fall of rain, crowds continued throughout this day to take the pledge with the most intense anxiety. Among them were all kinds of cripples, the lame, the blind, and the halt. We have heard a curious case of one of these, but we forbear to relate the story till further informed upon the subject.—Evening Packet of Thursday.

The Queen has been pleased to direct letters patent to be passed under the Great Seal granting the dignity of a Duchess of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, unto the Right Honourable Lady Cecilia Underwood (oldest surviving daughter of Arthur Saunders, second Earl of Arran, by Elizabeth, his third wife, daughter of Richard Underwood, late of the city of Dublin, Esq.) and the heirs male of her body lawfully begotten, by the name, style, and title of Duchess of Inverness.

Extraordinary Absence of Mind.—A few days ago a Shipmaster, who was ready for sea, and had as fair wind as he could wish for, engaged a Steamboat to take his vessel to Port-au-Prince, and it was only when he got there he recollected having taken the Steamboat instead of the ship's Register, for which he was then obliged to send back the Pilot's boat.

Church Meeting.—A meeting of the members of the Church of England, in this Parish, took place on Monday last, at the Madras School Room to consider upon the necessity of making provision for the support of the Pastors of the Parish. The services for the propagation of the Gospel in foreign parts have hitherto been under the sanction of supporting our Colonial Church establishments, and now finding their means of doing good inadequate to meet the necessary expenses, they have at length given intimation to this effect—so that our Episcopal ministers will for the future, have to be provided for out of our own resources—which, we think is no more than right, as we are as well able to pay for the services of our spiritual teachers, as for those of our temporal ones. The Meeting considered that the duties of the parish required three ministers—the Rector, and two assistants—the Rector to receive a salary of £500, the assistants £250 (each). Towards payment of these sums £75 sterling will, as heretofore, be paid by the Society for Propagating the Gospel, and £300 currency will be appropriated to the funds of the Corporation, and after allowing a sum for contingencies, the sum of £600 will require to be raised by subscription among the Parishioners. After several neat and appropriate speeches, Judge Parker moved the following resolution, which was seconded by Dr. Bayard, and carried by a large majority: "Resolved, That as the members of the Church of England, we recognize the indispensable obligation of contribution, according to our ability, for the maintenance of that Church among us, and for the proper support of our Clergy; and that we will forthwith enter into a subscription for raising the required sum of six hundred pounds, in order to provide suitable salaries for the Rector and Assistants."

Preparations, we are pleased to find, are being made, for laying the Corner Stone of the Building about to be erected by the Methodist Society in this City, with due ceremony, in about ten days. It is proposed to have a Trades Procession on the occasion, and we understand His Excellency Sir John Harvey has signified his intention of being present and taking part in the interesting proceedings of the day.—Courier.

Miramichi, May 12.

The Rev. Mr. Fraser.—At a meeting of the Presbytery of Miramichi, held in St. Andrew's Church, Chatham, on the 21st day of March, 1839, the Rev. Simon Fraser, A. M. having given in his answer to the calls presented to him from the United Congregations of Miramichi, Guelph, and Keuchibouguac, inviting him to become their settled and permanent Pastor; and having declined accepting of said calls, and intimated his intention of returning to his native Land; at the expiry of the period for which he had come out, the Presbytery deeply regretting his intention to quit a field in which he had for nearly five years, laboured with so much fidelity, zeal & success, and in which he had secured the affectionate attachment of all who had enjoyed the benefit of his ministry, appointed a committee of their number to confer with him, with the view of inducing him to remain in the country. Mr. Fraser informed the committee that he had fully engaged to return to Scotland, but with the view of allowing time to make application for a successor to him, he consented to remain with his charges for twelve months longer from that date. Mr. Fraser, of course, remained a member of Presbytery during this period, and up to the second day of April last, when, at a meeting of Presbytery held at Newcastle he was duly released from his charges, and the brethren present took an affectionate leave of him, trusting that in whatever part of his vineyard, that God in His Providence may see meet to place him, his labours may be abundantly blessed by the advancement of Christ's Kingdom and the good of souls.

The following Resolution was unanimously passed by the Presbytery at its Session, on the 22nd of March, 1839, relative to Mr. Fraser's intended departure:—"That the Presbytery have heard of Mr. Fraser's intention of leaving the Province, and of returning to Britain, with deep and sincere regret, well knowing the zeal and success with which he has laboured in the cause of Christ, ever since he came among them, and deeply sensible of the loss his departure will occasion both to the Presbytery, and the affectionately attached people of his charges."

Inserted by Order of the Presbytery.

 Presbytery Clerk.
