Wines, &c.

RED WINE OF ROUSSILLON.

A light fruity wine, pleasant in flavour, and not alcoholic. It is one of the common red wines, chosen by Mr. St. George from among the vintages of the south of France, and has proved beneficial both as a tonic to persons of weak digestion and generally as an agreeable substitute for beer or spirits.

The Church Herald.

1871-72.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY.—TWO DOLLARS PER ANNUM.

A Compendium of Literary and Ecclesiastical Topics of the Day

THE EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT

Contains articles from the pens of our ablest writers, on leading Ecclesiastical and general questions.

THE RELIGIOUS DEPARTMENT

Contains a Weekly Account of Church Progress at Home and Abroad, and of Ecclesiastical Events occurring in the Dominion and throughout the United States; Missionary Intelligence, &c., &c.

THE LITERARY DEPARTMENT

Contains Original Essays—Historical, Biographical, and Descriptive—Sketches of Travel and Adventure; Entertaining Tales; and Selections from the standard writers of the present and the past.

The Editor respectfully invites the co-operation of Churchmen throughout the Dominion. They may render valuable assistance by forwarding concise reports of matters relating to the Church, which may take place in their respective localities.

Our Correspondence Columns are open to all matters affecting the Church; and the opportunity thus afforded for men to meet on fair and neutral ground, will, it is hoped, be productive of lasting good. Preference will be given to letters signed by their authors.

N.B.—The large and influential class amongst which THE HERALD circulates renders it a desirable medium for advertisers. The rates of advertising are—

Single insertion (or less than one month)..... 10c per line each insertion. Clerical and Scholastic advertisements,..... 5c per line. Special Rates for Quarterly, Half-yearly and Yearly advertisements.
