

Boots, rubbers and overshoes of all sizes (especially 11 to 4).

Strong, thin Summer stockings.

Warm shawls (new or second-hand), for old Indian women at Christmas.

Dresses of blue serge, or any strong warm material for Winter; of stout flannelette for Spring, and of strong, pretty print, etc., for Summer are a constant necessity. Very poor material is hardly worth making into dresses as it wears out so soon; but we have only this year discarded the last of a set of Scotch dresses made over 12 years ago of strong material! The old-fashioned "linsey-woolsey" or "winsey" makes capital dresses for hard wear. For the older girls dark strong skirts, 25 inches long and upwards, to wear with blouses are much needed; for the younger girls the simpler the pattern of frock the better—either a closely-fitting body with gathered skirt, or a "Mother Hubbard," i.e., a yoke with full skirt gathered on and full sleeves. The measurements of sizes specially needed are given below:

Neck to Edge of Hem.	Inside Sleeve.	Neck.	Waist
48	18	13	28
39	17	13	27
36	15	12	27
33	13	11	27
30	11	11	25

Pinafores of all sorts and sizes, either full overall shape or plain sleeveless pinafores. The most satisfactory shape for the latter is made with a whole breadth in front, a half-breadth at each side of the back, a long slit left at each side seam for the armhole across the top of which a hemmed frill 3 or 4 inches wide is sewn, and the whole pinafore, frills and all, gathered into a neckband, about 22 inches long. They may be made in Turkey twill or any good washing print. It is better to avoid light colors as much as possible. Length from 27 inches upwards.

Unbleached cotton chemises and drawers of all sizes, in set of 3 if possible.

Flannelette chemises and drawers for the little girls.

Usters or long coats, new or second-hand, for the little girls.

Flannel (not flannelette) petticoats of women's size, and also for the very little girls 22 to 23 inches long in front. Plants, bulbs, or any contributions towards the garden. Strong knives and forks. Enamelled iron mugs and bowls. Buttons, tapes, mending and any needle-work materials. Stationery is always most useful.

NOTE.

Friends have been so kind in helping us that we have enough now of pillowcases, quilts, flannelette petticoats, flannelette underclothing of women's size, women's cloth jackets, hats.
