

It being announced that a Delegation from the National Division was in waiting to visit the Grand Division, G. W. A. Heenan and acting P. G. W. P. Shean retired, conducted the Delegation to the room and introduced the members thereof to the Grand Division.

P. G. W. P. Young, of P. E. Island, then announced that, in conjunction with himself, Representatives Brown, of Rhode Island, Campbell, of Eastern New York, Kimball, of Maine, and Chubbuck, of Massachusetts, had been appointed a Delegation to visit the Grand Division, as the National Division having so much business before them they could not adjourn their sitting for the purpose of visiting in a body as requested. Brother Young also, in behalf of the National Division, invited the members of the Grand Division to visit that body in session at the House of Assembly.

The Grand Division was then addressed by Representatives Young, Campbell, Chubbuck and Kimball, composing the Delegation present; also by Representative Hastings, of Massachusetts. The addresses of the Brethren were fervid, eloquent, listened to with marked attention, and elicited frequent and hearty applause.

P. G. W. P. Alexander Campbell, of the Grand Division of Eastern New York, presented the Grand Division with a Photograph of the Sons of Temperance Monument, erected in New York city, in May, 1861, to the memory of Daniel H. Sands, the first W. P., G. W. P., and M. W. P. of the Order. The presentation was accompanied with some complimentary remarks.

On accepting the Picture, the G. W. P. made a suitable reply, and, on motion, a vote of thanks was tendered to Brother Campbell for his gift.

It was voted that the members of the Grand Division avail
