

Raise Poultry the Peerless Way and Make More Money

Whatever branch of agriculture you intend to specialize in when you leave the College give a little time to the modern way of raising poultry—The PEERLESS Way. You will find it pays better, for the money invested and the work required, than anything else a farm can raise. That is a fact. Ten thousand people are succeeding with the Peerless Incubator and the Peerless Brooder. Very few of them had much money to start with—nor did they need it. Our long-credit system makes it easy to start right. Ask for our FREE book and learn about it.

This is the ONLY Incubator built especially to meet Canada's climatic conditions, and built by men who have made a success of the largest poultry business in the Dominion—the great Poultry Yards of Canada, Limited, at Pembroke. Peerless Incubators are used there exclusively.
