

Brilliant! Durable! Economical!

Diamond Dyes excel all others in strength, purity and fastness. None other are just as good. Beware of imitations, because they are made of cheap and inferior materials, and give poor, weak, crockey colors. To be sure of success, use only the DIAMOND DYES for coloring Dresses, Stockings, Yarns, Carpets, Feathers, Ribbons, &c., &c. We warrant them to color more goods, package for package, than any other dyes ever made, and to give more brilliant and durable colors. Ask for the Diamond and take no other.

YOUNG Housewife (to husband who says he knows how to cook): How long do you broil a chicken, Edwin? Edwin: Oh - er - how long is the chicken?

MR. RIDDLE, the Boston lecturer, is giving public readings from Browning. It is an interesting coincidence that both the lecturer and his subject are Riddles.

A COLOURED woman, when reproved for undue expression of grief, said: "Now, look heah, honey, when de Lord sends us tribulations down, don't you 'spose he 'spects us to tribulate."

TREES have some characteristics in common with people. In the spring they begin to leave for the summer, although some will be unable to do so, because their trunks will be seized for board.

THE Spectator gives as a good example of an Irish bull the "celebrated remark of the man who asserted that the state of affairs was 'enough to make a man commit suicide, or perish in the attempt.'"

MRS. SELBY: Doctah, de chile dun gone swaller 'r pint ob ink. D tot: Hab yo' jun ennyding fo' de relief ob 'im? Mrs. Selby: I's dun made 'im eat free sheets of blottin'-paper doctah. Was dat rite?

PA: What would you like to be when you grow up, Johnny? Johnny: I think I'll be a soldier. "You might get killed." "Who 'y?" "By the enemy of course." "Well, then, I guess I had better be the enemy."

LITTLE Boy (at toy-store window): Mamma, won't you buy mea top? Mamma; (meditatively). It will soon be too cold to spin tops. "Well then, buy me a double-ripper sled and some new skates, and we'll let the top go."

HE: Isn't this pastry of yours - h'm - little tough, my dear? (After a moment.) What delicious pies my mother used to make at home! She (with a half sigh): Possibly it is. (After a moment) - What lovely dinners Papa used to give me at Delmonico's!

BOBBY, said young Featherly, as the lad opened the door, I think I left my umbrella here last evening. Will you ask your sister Clara if she has seen anything of it! It's all right, replied Bobby, sister's out walking with Mr. Sampson, and, as it looked like rain, they took it with them.

WIFE (critically ill). What does the doctor say, George? Husband: That you are very, very ill, dear. Wife (after a short pause): If I should not get well, George, give my sealskin sacque to your sister. I'll just let her see it's real. She has more than one insinuated that it's only plush.

Two ladies shopping - "What shall we buy George for Christmas?" "I don't know; something useful, however." "That's just what I think." And then, after three or four hours' hard work (for the salesman) they purchase a pen-wiper done in moire antique with lace trimmings and a mother-of-pearl boot-jack.

DOLLY: Aw, Willie, I must have made - aw - a tremendous hit with that little Brown girl; she asked me for my photo the other day Willie: Did y' give it to her? Dolly: Yws, of course. Willie: Well, that settles you at that house, me deah fel. She gives those photos to the servant girl with "Out when this one calls" written on it.

BUTCHER'S ANTISEPTIC INHALER AND INHALATIONS.

An Unrivalled Remedy for the Treatment and Actual Cure of Catarrh, Catarrhal Deafness, Hay Fever, Asthma, Bronchitis, Relaxed Throat, Hoarseness, Difficult and Fetid Expectoration.

Endorsed by the leading Physicians of Canada and the United States.

Dr. E. H. Trenholm, of Montreal says: "I have used the Inhaler in very many cases and with uniform success, and believe it the best yet invented for diseases of the Nose and Throat."

Dr. Barnaby, of Bridgetown, in a letter to the Company, says: "In my opinion it is just what is required in this Province in the treatment of Catarrh, Asthma, Bronchitis and Consumption, in fact, in all diseases of the respiratory organs. The principle involved is sound, and this system of treatment is bound to come into universal use in the near future."

Dr. Fitzhenry Campbell, ex-Surgeon to the British Army, says: "I feel confident the Inhaler possesses the true principle by which medication can be carried directly to a diseased membrane of the respiratory tract." Send for particulars to

A NEW LEASE OF LIFE - CURED WITHOUT MEDICINE.

All diseases are cured by our medicated Electric Belts and Appliances. On the principle that electricity is life, our appliances are brought directly into contact with the diseased part. They act as perfect absorbents, by destroying the germs of disease and removing all impurities from the body. Diseases are successfully treated by correspondence, as our goods can be applied at home.
