Ladies, Be Guarded!

A Little Attention on Your Part will Save You Annoyance and Trouble.

The ladies should remember that Diamond Dyes are always twice the strength of all inferior and imitation dyes. Diamond dyes will always give you your money's worth of pure and never fading dyestuff that is simple to use, and that will do just as represented. Do not be deceived by big packages that imitators put up. Their dyes are mixed with salt, alum, and other worthless adulterations. In a word, beware of the dealer who tries to sell you something that he represents to be just as good as Diamond Dyes. Experts say, Diamond Dyes are the best in the world.

HEALTH AND HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

To have your sadirons clean and smooth rub them first with a piece of waa tied in a cloth and afterwards scour them on a paper or thick cloth strewn with coarse salt.

A few drops of amonia in the water in which silver is washed will keep it bright a long time without cleaning. This should always be done with plated ware, as frequent rubbings wear off the plate.

In case of a cut or jagged wound, smoke the wound with burned fannel on which has been placed a small quantity of sugar. Sprinkle a little sulphur over the wound and tie up with bandages and it will heal immediately.

Always wash baby's mouth and gum every morning with water in which you have put a pinch of borax. It keeps the mouth fresh and sweet, and prevents that uncomfortable affliction, a sore mouth, with which so many poor babies are troubled when their mouths are not kept perfectly clean.

Corn Bread.—One pint of corn meal, over which boiling water has been poured, enough to scald it; add a pint of milk and three well-beaten eggs, also one teaspoonful of salt and the same of yeast powder; bake in a quick oven.

Turnips a la Creme.—Cut peeled turnips into half inch squares; boil in salted water and drain; pour over a cream sauce made of one cup of hot milk poured gradually over one tablespoonful each of butter and flour rubbed together. Season.

Orange Sauce.—Mix one teaspoonful of cornstarch with a quarter-cupful of sugar. Press the juice from three good-sized oranges; put it over the fire, when hot add sugar and cornstarch; stir and cook a moment. Baste this over the bananas and serve.

Jelly Sauce for Steamed Fowl.—Turn a glassful of tender currant or grape jelly out upon a deep plate, and beat it to a foam. Then add a level teaspoonful of dry mustard and a saltspoonful of salt, and beat again thoroughly. Serve in a bowl, glass dish or sauce boat.

Celery With Grated Cheese.—Serve crisp white celery neatly upon a long, low dish, and ornament it with bits of ice. The cheese should be finely grated, heaped upon a pretty dish and served with a spoon upon the plate of each guest who desires it. The celery is dipped into the cheese and bitten off.

Fruit Cake.—One cup of molasses, one cup of brown sugar, one cup of shortening, two eggs, two teaspoonfuls of soda, three cups of flour, two cups of dried apples before being soaked. Beat and stir in one egg and add raisins and spices to suit. Soak the apples over night. In the morning put in molasses and sugar, boiling down quite thick.

Vegetable Soup.—This is one of the strongest, best and most healthful soups made, when it is properly made. The greatest secret about soup-making is to have a variety of meat for stock, and to cook the stock over a slow fire for five or six hours. Scraps of chicken meat lend a delicate taste which is always acceptable, but good beef is needed to give body. Bits of ham add to the flavour, and a part of a lemon, cut into small bits, gives zest. Celery is almost indispensable in the making of good vegetable soup, and all soup in order to be good should be strong. Onions, carrots, cabbage, turnips, beets, celery, — all may be used to advantage in vegetable soup, and should be well cooked. A bouquet of thyme, bay leaf, etc., adds to the flavor. The taste of soup is often injured by the use of poor sauce. Nothing has ever been found that would take the place of the genuine Lea and Perrins sauce.

There's no Danger to be feared, even if you do use too much Pearline in the washing. If there's any danger of damage at all, it's when you use too little. In that case, you'll have to begin that dreadful rubbing and car-loads of Pearline couldn't do as much damage to your clothes as that will. Follow the directions on the package—that's the best way of all. But remember, too much won't hurt anything. It's only a waste of good Pearline.
