

HAS YOUR CHURCH SENT FOR A PARCEL OF THE YEAR BOOK FOR 1887-88? And have you it in your own house? A bound volume of 260 pages, post free, for 15 cts. And cannot you, by showing our Prospectus (on 3rd page of cover), and exhibiting this excellent number—with a word of commendation from yourself—get the neighbor who lives across the way, or the one who sits in the pew next you, to subscribe for the INDEPENDENT? Just send his and your dollars together, and thus help the Magazine to be better, and so do God's work better in the country, and do your neighbor a good turn!—good, both for himself and for his children. Perhaps you remember when you were young yourself, and wished there was some good reading in the house! Your own and your neighbors' children may have the same hunger now.

The Century Magazine

WITH the November, 1887, issue, THE CENTURY commences its thirty-fifth volume with a regular circulation of almost 250,000. The War Papers and the Life of Lincoln increased its monthly edition by 100,000. The latter history having recounted the events of Lincoln's early years, and given the necessary survey of the political condition of the country, reaches a new period, with which his secretaries were most intimately acquainted. Under the caption Lincoln in the War, the writers now enter on the most important part of their narrative, viz.: the early years of the War, and President Lincoln's part therein.

Supplementary War Papers, following the "battle series" by distinguished generals, will describe interesting features of army life, tunneling from Libby Prison, narratives of personal adventure, etc. General Sherman will write on "The Grand Strategy of the War."

Kenann on Siberia. Except the Life of Lincoln and the War Articles, no more important series has ever been undertaken by THE CENTURY than this of Mr. Kenann's.

With the previous preparation of four years' travel and study in Russia and Siberia, the author undertook a journey of 15,000 miles or the special investigation here required. An introduction from the Russian Minister of the Interior admitted him to the principal mines and prisons, where he became acquainted with some three hundred State exiles—Liberals, Nihilists and others—and the series will be a startling as well as accurate revelation of the exile system. The many illustrations by the artist and photographer, Mr. George A. Frost, who accompanied the author, will add greatly to the value of the articles.

A Novel by Eggleston, with illustrations, will run through the year. Shorter novels will follow by Cable and Stockton. Shorter fictions will appear every month.

Miscellaneous Features will comprise several illustrated articles on Ireland, by Charles De Kay; papers touching the field of the Sunday School Lessons, illustrated by E. L. Wilson; wild Western life, by Theodore Roosevelt; the English Cathedrals, by Mrs. Van Rensselaer, with illustrations by Pennell; Dr. Buckley's valuable papers on Dreams, Spiritualism, and Clairvoyance; essays in criticism, art, travel, and biography; poems, cartoons, etc.

By a SPECIAL OFFER the numbers for the past year (containing the Lincoln history) may be secured with the year's subscription from November, 1887, twenty-four issues in all, for $6.00, or, with the last year's numbers handsomely bound, $7.50.
