BY

GEORGE COULSON WORKMAN, M.A., PH.D.

Author of "The Text of Jeremiah," etc.

With Introduction by

REV. CHANCELLOR BURWASH, S.T.D.

Cloth, 60c. Net, - - Postpaid.

Rev. Chancellor Burwash contributes an Introduction, in which he remarks:—"Dr. Workman's book is an able as well as a useful exposition of the new line of defending the Scriptures, by a man of ripe scholarship in the department with which it deals. It proceeds in what I believe to be the only safe and right direction for the reconciliation of religious faith with every other form of truth. The solution which the author gives is lucid in style, conservative in spirit, and constructive in aim. While it sacredly conserves the old truth, it fairly and frankly opens the mind to the new. It thus endeavours to interpret each in the light of the other, and so grasp them both in a true unity of thought."

Poems

By WALTER A. RATCLIFFE.

With a Preface by . . .

W. D. LIGHTHALL, M.A., F.R.S.L.

Cloth, $1.00, - Postpaid.

In his Preface Mr. Lighthall remarks: "Within these covers is to be found one of the most notable volumes of verse recently published in Canada, because probably no other deals so intensely yet simply with the everyday problems of the soul and of suffering humanity." The author is almost totally blind, and a touching reference to this affliction is made by Mr. Lighthall when he says: "Perhaps he has been sentenced at one of the outposts of misfortune to show how bravely misfortune can be borne. We commend the book to the public. The reader will heartily share the author's scorn of wrong and love of liberty and sympathy with the poor and oppressed." There are some fine patriotic poems in the collection.
