

where they shall remain at least for four days previous to being removed to the Primary Quarantine Department, and where a quarantine of four more days shall be performed after cleansing, washing, and purifying, previous to removal to the Final Quarantine Department, where two more days of quarantine only, instead of six, shall be performed, making in all ten clear days after leaving the Cholera Hospital, when, if the patient continues healthy, he, or she, shall be discharged.

4. Persons having completed their period of quarantine, shall be removed at once from the Quarantine Station by steamers chartered for the purpose, and shall proceed directly on their journey.

5. Provisions, stores, clothing, bedding, and all other necessities or supplies for the Hospital Department, shall be conveyed within the Hospital limits under the same regulations and restrictions as persons.

6. All physicians, orderlies, servants, nurses, and attendants, &c., connected with the Cholera Quarantine Station, as also all persons performing quarantine, shall remain and be kept constantly in the department or section to which they have respectively been assigned, and none of them shall, under any pretext whatever, be permitted to have any communication or intercourse whatever, directly or indirectly, with persons from another department or section, excepting in due course of quarantine.

7. Any employé, nurse, or orderly belonging to the Quarantine Station who may be found violating the above rule, shall be liable to suspension from office, with forfeiture of salary and emoluments, or dismissal from office, at the discretion of the medical officer in charge, or of the superintendent, besides being obliged to undergo such quarantine as the nature of the contact or exposure may warrant.

8. Any person violating the above rule by going from the Final Quarantine Department to the Primary Quarantine Department, or from either of these to the Hospital Department, shall, on detection, be detained in the department they have gone into in violation of the law, and shall undergo quarantine there anew.

9. All persons suffering the approach of persons from another department, excepting in due course of quarantine, will render themselves liable, at the discretion of the medical officer, to be sent back to the department to which the person so approaching them belonged and shall undergo quarantine anew.

10. The three Quarantine Sections or Departments shall be separated from each other, and bounded by a cordon or piece of neutral ground of at least one hundred feet in width, and shall be surrounded by a strong fence of at least seven feet high.
