CORONER'S UNCLAIMED BODIES.—We are glad to observe that the Solicitor-General has caused an amendment to be added to the new Coroner's Bill, to the effect that the bodies of paupers unclaimed shall be given over by that officer to the Inspector of Anatomy (where such person exists) for the purpose of dissection. The correction of this omission was urged in the last number of the JOURNAL, and it will doubtless assist in preventing the annually-recurring complaints of body-snatching.

ANOTHER DEATH FROM CHLOROFORM.—A case of death from inhalation of chloroform occurred at the City Hospital, Hamilton, Ont., on the 3rd June last. The unfortunate individual was a woman who had been admitted for the treatment of mammary abscess. The anæsthetic used was a mixture of one part of spirits of turpentine and eight parts of chloroform. The patient
