

MEDICINE HAT INDIAN HOME.

WE give herewith a cut of the new institution for Indian children, which was built last autumn on the banks of the River Saskatchewan, opposite to the Town of Medicine Hat, and which will, it is hoped, be opened next summer and be carried on under the auspices of the Church of England. The building already erected is one only of the three which have been planned for ; on either side of it are to be a Home for boys and a Home for girls, this central one being used only for meals and school. For the present, however, until the other buildings are ready, this central building can, when completed, be used for the purposes of all three, with a limited number of pupils. The buildings are to be all of one pattern—the walls being constructed of a framework of timbers forming a variety of patterns, which will be seen on the outside, the spaces between the timbers being filled in with concrete. The timbers being painted dark and the concrete being of a whitish-grey color, the general effect is pretty, and the buildings will have a substantial and somewhat antique appearance. The people of Medicine Hat have been generous in their contributions to the Indian Home, as much as $400 having been raised on the spot. There is still, however, about $1400 required before the building now under construction can be completed and
