SAMUEL E. ROBERTS.

BEGINNING WITH JULY, 1885, THE

Magazine of American History

Will publish a series of papers on

The Civil War from all Points of View

Special studies in its History.

The unrivalled facilities of the Magazine of American History for securing the most acceptable and authoritative data on all questions of a historical character, and through the repeated and urgent solicitations of many persons of eminence and influence, this periodical will commence with the July issue of the present year the publication of a series of WAR STUDIES, prepared by active participants in the stirring scenes described, and by the best of living writers. One-fourth of a century has softened the memories of the great civil conflict, and through the renewal of kindly intercourse between the North and the South our country is now rapidly growing in prosperity, wealth and power. The moment seems to have fully arrived for placing its history from all points of view on permanent record. The study of a contest so memorable for the magnitude of its issues and the sacrifices of blood and treasure it involved, must necessarily be conducted in the genuine historic spirit. The truth, not partisanship, will be represented. The mere description of battles is not so much a part of this important scheme as many other interesting phases of the War, such as its effects upon the people of the different sections of the country, and upon the world's future. Fresh material will surprise and inform our readers from time to time, with innumerable glimpses from behind the scenes, which do not fall readily into the grasp of the annalist or reciter of adventures. Beginning with the first great uprising throughout the land in 1861, the method and continuity of these War Studies will enable the student of American History to trace the memorable contest authoritatively from its inception to its close. It will be not only of interest now, but of surpassing value hereafter, as contemporaneous evidence for the future historian. These papers will be pertinently illustrated with portraits and also with photographs, and pen-and-ink sketches made at the time, and never before published. The Magazine of American History has been so fortunate as to secure a large number of these negatives and drawings from distinguished sources, which will add immeasurably to the interest and value of the series.

The Fourteenth Volume of The Magazine of American History begins with the number for July, 1885. It is the only magazine in the country devoted exclusively to history and the literature, antiquities and curiosities of history. It is conducted in a spirited and popular manner, and it is printed with such care and taste that it is a pleasure to turn its beautiful pages. There are two handsome volumes in each year, beginning with January and July. With each successive volume an elaborate Index is carefully prepared and added, enhancing the value of the work, particularly for reference, in a measure that cannot be over-estimated. It forms also a unique gallery of historical portraits. There is no work in existence more absolutely indispensable to the well-to-do library, whether public or private, or chosen home and the study-table. Schools, colleges and libraries have found it a necessity. Subscriptions may begin at any time, and all booksellers and newsdealers receive them, or remittance may be made direct to the publishers. Price, $5.00 a year. The price of the bound volume is $3.50 for each half year, in dark green levant cloth, and $4.50 if bound in half morocco. This Magazine and the Century will be sent to any one address for a year on receipt of $7.50. Address—
