The nomination for School representatives at the different college functions were:

McGill—T. R. Loudon (accl.)

Queen's—A. Gray (accl.)

Arts—G. T. Clarke, R. Munro.

Meds.—F. L. Cousins (accl.)

Lady Meds.—Scott and Linton (accl.)

Dental—K. A. Mackenzie, W. C. Tepson, D. S. Parke, and C. H. Rogers.

The representatives at the Meds. functions report a cordial welcome and a very enjoyable time. The new building has been handed over by the Government to the School authorities. There is some talk of the formal opening ceremonies extending over three days and being made to include the dinner. It is not probable, however, that this will take place until some time in January.

The Director of Surveys for Saskatchewan is Mr. J. S. Dobie of '95.

Just published:

Confessions of a Camera Fiend—W. Huber.

The Choir Inaudible—By Mac Gordon.

The Memoirs of a Great Detective, Including the Story of "The Film With the Blurred Faces"—By Dr. Anderson.

The School representative to appear before the University Commission is Mr. T. R. Loudon.

Ritchie spent nearly an hour last Thursday in the writing room of the Union trying to construct a Varsity song wherein "Baldwin" would rhyme with "Southam."

Lecturer on Cement.—"What is the specific gravity of that cement, Mr. B—?"

Mr. B.—"3.7." Lecturer—"That's too high."

Mr. B.—"Oh, I mean 3.07." Lecturer—"That's too low."

Echo—"You'll have to doctor that result again, Bill."

A novelty was added to the annual "scrap" with the Meds. this year when the pot of grease from the School came into play, thus announcing to our friends of the College of Sawbones that our efforts during school hours were not confined to practice in the use of inks, but that care was also taken to teach us how to apply grease scientifically to a surface requiring lubrication.

Unknown to '07 when they gave that yell on Friday last that tells both where they came from and where they are bound for their action was characterized by listeners as most idiotic. Probably because they seem so certain of their destiny.

It again becomes our pleasant duty to congratulate the School Seniors on their success in the Mulock Cup series. The only time that there seemed danger of the cup going to another team was when they met the School Juniors.

Nearly every School man turned out on Saturday to see Varsity win the championship from the Rough Riders.
