No. 5436/UNP/13
REPORT OF THE INTERNATIONAL LAW COMMISSION
ON THE WORK OF ITS SIXTH SESSION

The General Assembly,

Considering that the draft code of offences against the peace and security of mankind as formulated in Chapter III of the report of the International Law Commission on the work of its sixth session (A/2693) raises problems closely related to that of the definition of aggression,

Considering that by its resolution of 1954 the General Assembly decided to entrust to a special committee of States the task of preparing and submitting to the General Assembly at its eleventh session a detailed report on the question of defining aggression and a draft definition of aggression,

Expresses its appreciation of the work done by the International Law Commission;

Decides to postpone further consideration of the draft code until the said special committee on the question of defining aggression has submitted its report.
