

legislation of Greece during any period of residence in Canada, that period of residence shall not be treated as residence in Canada for the purposes of the Old Age Security Act, in respect of that person, his spouse and dependants who reside with him and are not employed during that period.

4. Periods during which the spouse or dependant referred to in paragraph 3 is contributing to the Canada Pension Plan or to the comprehensive pension plan of a province of Canada as a result of employment shall be treated as periods of residence in Canada for the purposes of the Old Age Security Act.

5. If a person referred to in paragraph 3 also becomes subject to the Canada Pension Plan or the comprehensive pension plan of a province of Canada, by virtue of occupying simultaneously more than one employment, such period of employment shall not be treated as a period of residence for the purposes of the Old Age Security Act.

Part II—Provisions Concerning Benefits

CHAPTER I—OLD AGE BENEFITS

ARTICLE VIII

1. (a) If a person is entitled to an old age benefit under the legislation of Greece, without recourse to the following provisions of this Article, the benefit payable under the legislation of Greece shall be payable in the territory of Canada.
- (b) If a person is entitled to an old age benefit under the Old Age Security Act without recourse to the following provisions of this Article, this benefit shall be payable in the territory of Greece if that person has accumulated, in all, at least twenty years of residence in Canada.
- (c) If a person is entitled to an old age benefit under the rules set out in subsections 3(1) (a) and (b) of the Old Age Security Act, without recourse to the following provisions of this Article, but has not accumulated twenty years of residence in Canada, a partial benefit shall be payable to him in the territory of Greece if the periods of residence in the territory of the two Parties when totalized according to the rules set out in paragraph 4 of this Article, represent at least twenty years.
The amount of old age benefit payable in the territory of Greece shall, in this case, be calculated in accordance with the principles governing the payment of the partial pension payable, according to paragraphs 3(1.1) to 3(1.4) inclusive of the Old Age Security Act and the details of application of the paragraphs of that Act to this Agreement shall be defined by the Administrative Arrangement provided for in Article XIV.
- (d) If a person is entitled to a partial pension according to the rules in paragraph 3(1.1) to 3(1.4) inclusive of the Old Age Security Act, without recourse to the following provisions of this Article, the partial pension shall be payable in the territory of Greece if the periods of residence in the territory of the two Parties when totalized according to the rules set out in paragraph 4 of this Article equal at least twenty years.
