

until new tariffs have been established in accordance with the provisions of this Article or Article XX of this Agreement.

7. If the aeronautical authorities of one of the Contracting Parties become dissatisfied with an established tariff, they shall so notify the aeronautical authorities of the other Contracting Party and the designated airlines shall attempt, where required, to reach an agreement. If within the period of ninety (90) days from the day of receipt of such notification, a new tariff cannot be established in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs 2 and 3 of this article, the procedures as set out in paragraphs 4 and 5 of this Article shall apply.

8. The aeronautical authorities of both Contracting Parties shall endeavour to ensure that

a) the tariffs charged and collected conform to the tariffs accepted by both aeronautical authorities and

b) no airline rebates portion of such tariffs by any means.

ARTICLE XV

(Sales and Transfer of Funds)

1. Each designated airline shall have the right to engage in the sale of air transportation in the territory of the other Contracting Party directly and, at its discretion through its agents. Each designated airline shall have the right to sell transportation in the currency of that territory or, at its discretion and to the extent permitted by national laws of that territory, in freely convertible currencies of other countries and, to the same extent, any person shall be free to purchase such transportation in currencies accepted for sale by that airline.

2. Consistent with respective foreign currency regulations applicable to all countries in like circumstances, each designated airline shall have the right at any time to convert and remit to its country revenues accrued from the sale of passenger, cargo and mail transportation after deduction of expenses incurred in the territory of the other Contracting Party. Such conversion and remittance shall be made promptly in accordance with the formalities in effect and at the applicable foreign exchange rates for current payments prevailing
