

14. The Canadian and United States governments hope to exchange Treaty ratifications by October 1, 1964. To that end, the Canadian government will bring the Treaty before the Second Session of the 26th Parliament, opening February 18, where opportunity for full examination will be afforded.