

different homes, for creating such a fund that enabled us to come ... to this free and glorious country of free and generous people ... to see and to (learn)".