

HEADS OF USA POSTS NOW DESIGNATED AS CONSUL GENERAL

Buffalo:

William R. VAN, 60, was appointed to Buffalo in August, 1979. He is a Foreign Service Officer and Trade Commissioner with previous experience in Asia, Latin America, Europe and Ottawa. He is a native of Quebec City.

Cleveland:

Norman W. BOYD, 49, was appointed to Cleveland in August, 1979. He is a Foreign Service Officer and Trade Commissioner who has served in several European posts, Washington, D.C. and Tokyo. Mr. Boyd is a native of Russels (Ontario).

Dallas:

Frank T. JACKMAN, 52, became Consul in Dallas in September, 1980, transferring from Dusseldorf, Germany where he had been Consul-General. He is the former General Director of the Office of International Projects, Department of Industry, Trade and Commerce. He is a native of Montreal.

Detroit:

T. Francis HARRIS, 62, has been Consul in Detroit since August, 1976. He is a Foreign Service Officer and Trade Commissioner who has served previously in the Hague, Mexico, New Orleans, Bombay and Rio de Janeiro. He is a native of Ottawa.

Minneapolis:

George E.B. BLACKSTOCK, 48, was appointed to his present position in August, 1979. He was formerly Deputy Consul General in New York, and has had a variety of postings abroad and at headquarters. Born in Toronto, he is a Foreign Service Officer and Trade Commissioner.

Philadelphia:

Willard G. PYBUS, 60, has been Consul since September, 1978, having served previously in Moscow, Canberra, Washington and in various headquarters positions with the Department of Industry, Trade and Commerce, which he joined on graduation from the University of Alberta. Mr. Pybus is originally from Kitsgoty (Alberta).