*[Translation]*EXTERNAL AFFAIRS—REQUEST FOR BILINGUAL
STAFF IN EMBASSIES ABROAD

Mr. Maurice Allard (Sherbrooke): Mr. Speaker, last Wednesday I put in this house the following question to the Secretary of State for External Affairs:

I should like to put a question to the hon. Secretary of State for External Affairs. At the same time, I should like to congratulate him on his excellent appearance on the television show called "Sel de la semaine" last night, during which he seemed to say that he never refused a well-presented request. Here, then, is my question:

In view of the grievances and suggestions made by Mr. Antonio Barrette, former Canadian ambassador to Greece, would the hon. minister or the government immediately take the necessary steps to ensure that the personnel in Canadian embassies is bilingual?

I am pleased to have the opportunity to elaborate on the problem I referred to at the time.

It often happens that Canadians travelling abroad note that the staff in our embassies is composed exclusively of English speaking persons who cannot speak French, which is the other official language of our country.

I wish to point out, among other protests in this regard, the statements made recently by Mr. Antonio Barrette, former Canadian ambassador to Greece. Mr. Barrette urged the federal government to place more emphasis, in our embassies, on the bilingual and bicultural character of Canada. Some of my constituents in the riding of Sherbrooke which I represent in this house told me of similar anomalies, noted during trips abroad. I feel, Mr. Speaker, that the hon. Secretary of State for External Affairs should take immediate steps to provide all Canadian embassies with bilingual personnel, in order that ambassadors and Canadian employees dealing with citizens of other countries may speak English and French reasonably well, in addition to other languages they may cultivate.

Our bilingual and bicultural character must be displayed outside as well as inside our country. This Canadian characteristic is a source of influence and prestige on the international level, and it will likely greatly improve our relations with French speaking countries.

I understand that, at the present time, the application of Canadian bilingualism gives rise to difficulties in some countries and with respect to certain employees. But despite past obstacles and carelessness, the federal government must spare no effort to encourage Canadian bilingualism in our embassies and
