

The Mulroneyites — Mr. Wilson, Mr. Mazankowski, and Mr. Mulroney — will not be around much longer, but no matter, because Campbell and Charest have both made it clear they are more than prepared to listen and carry on these programs. They would even have a go at the, up until now, untouchable national health care system.

But that is for next time.

On motion of Senator Frith, debate adjourned.

BUDGET IMPLEMENTATION (GOVERNMENT ORGANIZATIONS) BILL, 1992

THIRD READING—DEBATE CONTINUED

On the Order:

Resuming the debate on the motion of the Honourable Senator Kelly, seconded by the Honourable Senator Cochrane, for the third reading of Bill C-93, to implement certain government organization provisions of the budget tabled in the House of Commons on February 25, 1992;

And on the motion in amendment of the Honourable Senator Frith, seconded by the Honourable Senator Molgat, that Bill C-93 be not now read the third time but that it be amended by striking out line 38 on page 16 and substituting therefor the following:

43. Section 15 of the said Act is repealed and the following substituted therefor:

15. Funds to be appropriated for the Council, as set out in the estimates of the government for a fiscal year and laid before the House of Commons, shall be divided into the following four votes:

Vote 1: Funds for operating and capital expenditures in the fiscal year;

Vote 2: Funds for the purposes of paragraph 8(1)(a);

Vote 3: Funds for the purposes of paragraph 8(1)(b); and

Vote 4: Funds for the purposes of paragraph 8(1)(c).

The Hon. the Speaker: Honourable senators, pursuant to rule 67(3), the bells must ring for 15 minutes before the vote. Shall I call in the senators and have the bells rung?

Hon. Senators: Agreed.
