

CHAPTER CLXXXI.	PAGE	CHAPTER CLXXXVII.	PAGE
Collegiate and Conventual Chapels		St. Francis' Roman Catholic—An
Attached to the Various Religious Denominations of the City	577	Offshoot from the Adjacent Parish of St. Mary's	594
St. Joseph's Convent	577	CHAPTER CLXXXVIII.
Loretto Convent	578	St. John's Roman Catholic, East
Wycliffe College	579	Toronto, only Roman Catholic
McMaster University	579	Church in That Part of East
Victoria University	580	York	594
House of Providence	581	CHAPTER CLXXXIX.
Knox College	583	Victoria Presbyterian Church —
Bishop Strachan School	584	First Presbyterian Church in
CHAPTER CLXXXII.		the "Junction"	595
Deaf and Dumb Congregation —		CHAPTER CXC.
Unique Religious Organization of Great Interest	585	Chester Presbyterian — Pretty
CHAPTER CLXXXIII.		Church in a Country Neighbourhood, for Many Years a
St. James' Church—Brief History of First Anglican Church in Toronto	586	Mission	597
CHAPTER CLXXXIV.		Bonar Presbyterian	598
St. Saviour's, East Toronto — A Handsome and Prosperous Suburban Church	590	CHAPTER CXCI.
CHAPTER CLXXXV.		Kew Beach Presbyterian — For
St. Jude's—Founded as a West End Mission During the Boom	591	Many Years a Mission Church, only Fully Organized in 1895	598
St. Paul's Church	592	CHAPTER CXCI.
St. John's Church	592	King St. East Methodist—The new Church of 1903, Erected on the Old Site	599
CHAPTER CLXXXVI.		CHAPTER CXCI.
Church of the Holy Family — The First Roman Catholic Church in Parkdale	593	Churches of the Past — Where Early Residents of the City Once Worshipped	600