tence must this appear to all who are any way acquainted with the transactions of la Salle, even as they are magnified by the French writers! He went over the lakes, and down the river Illinois to the Missipi, and never came within many hundred miles of the river Obio, especially the forks of that river about Fort du Quesne, which he never once heard tell of: yet from thence the French pretend to claim all that country, and all North America with it beyond those bounds!—This is just as they pretend to claim under Mr. Denys in Nova Scotia.

They pretend to tell us, that the English never formed any pretentions to the river Obio. nor to any part of the countryabout it. But it is well known, and was acknowledged by the natives of the country at Albany in 1754, that the English had settled on the Obio thirty years before that; where we had many fettlements on and about that river from Venango to Shawnoab, or the lower Shawnoes, extending along the river for four or five hundred miles and more, when the French came there in 1753; besides a fettlement at Pickawillamy on the river Wabache established in 1749, five hundred miles west of Fort du Quesne; which fort itfelf was projected and laid out by the Ohio company: besides another fort we had nigh Buffalo or Beef river, that was seized with the garrifon
