

6876 - July 11/21

PREFACE.

THE steady and unresting flight of time has brought round the season for a new issue of THE PRESBYTERIAN YEAR BOOK. Examination will show that it has been considerably improved; the aim having been to make it more useful and attractive than ever. It seeks to aid the best interests of the Church throughout the Dominion. As in former years, indebtedness is heartily acknowledged for the timely and suitable contributions with which well-known writers, ministerial and lay, have favoured us.

THE EDITOR.

TORONTO, December, 1891.

L
N
C A R
S
D

br
C th an T
fo
su
th pr of pa be

CA