

CHAPTER XI. Page 61.

The Canadian horse a fine animal—
so is the bullock.—The sheep are egregiously bad.—The hog little better.—
How to improve the breed of the hog, &c.

CHAPTER XII. Page 72.

The Canadians drain their land with judgment how it is conducted.

CHAPTER XIII. Page 73.

Canadians fence well—how it is executed.

CHAPTER XIV. Page 75.

The potatoe a valuable and delicious
vegetable.—It came first from South America.—Thirty-six species of it.—The way to breed new seed potatoes.—The way to regenerate them partially.—It is a valuable crop when tilled lightly.—
Worth fifteen pounds per acre.—This is