

a consultation with the Chairman of his District ; not excluding, however, the other ministerial colleagues of the party concerned.

7. In order that the work may be constantly under the eye of the Preachers, the Superintendent shall keep quarterly schedules in every Circuit, each of which shall contain a correct statement, for the quarter to which it belongs, of persons admitted on trial—new members fully admitted into Society, after due probation—Members admitted from other Circuits or Classes—Removals into other Circuits—Deaths—Backsliders—Persons withdrawn—Conversions—Professing Justification—Sanctification—Number in Bands—and total number of members then in Society. The Editor shall prepare and furnish to every Circuit a sufficient number of printed Forms of such Schedules, at the expense of the Circuit, to be filled up by the Preachers, in reference to every distinct class, at the end of each quarter, and laid before the Chairman at his quarterly visitation, if called for. From these quarterly schedules, the Superintendent shall, at the close of the year, draw up a general schedule; containing an account of all the Societies in his Circuit, in relation to the several particulars above mentioned, and shall present the same to the Annual District Meeting, to be made the subject of serious conversation among the brethren, when taking into consideration the spiritual state and circumstances of the District, and be brought by the Chairman to the Conference.

8. The Recording General Steward of each Circuit shall attend the District Meeting, during the consideration of the financial affairs of the District, in order to lay before the meeting the accounts of his Circuit and to consult with the Preachers the best means of promoting the interests of the Circuit. Let it be understood and
