

PAGE		PAGE
21-23	Nicoll, Captain, of the Scourge, Character and conduct of	230
157	Negro Seamen an object of interest in France,	195
78	Negro Seamen, Conduct of, in the War,	143
313-315	Neufchatel Privateer, engages boats of British Man-of-War,	241-244
247	New York City, Common Council of, presents Freedom of the City to Captain Hull,	81
19	New York, Several Privateers sail from	3
348	266 Merchant vessels arrive at, between April and August, 1812,	81
197	Merchants of, memorialize Congress with respect to Privateering,	89-95
320	New Orleans, British Policy in taking	144
253	Nichols, Captain of Privateer Harpy, Letter of acknowledgment to, from prisoners,	322-323
147	Nonsuch, engages a Ship and Schooner,	87
254	Notes and Explanations,	423
262	Number of Privateers and Letters-of-Marque at Sea, 16th July, 1812,	38
48
8	Official Account of the Action between U. S. Ship Hornet and British Sloop of War Penguin,	332-335
261	On the 18th of June, the Common Council of the City of New York present Captain Isaac Hull with the Freedom of their City in a Gold Box,	81
262
194-195	Paris, visit to, in 1813,	210, 213
114	Patriotism of the City of Baltimore,	130
221	Perry, Privateer, successful Cruise of	324
36	Pelham, British Ship, captured by Saucy Jack,	233
303	Penguin, British Sloop, engaged and conquered by the Hornet,	332
41	Destroyed by Scuttling,	235
149	Perry, Privateer of Baltimore, Cruise of	236
394	Pilot Boat dispatched to Gottenburg,	2
395	Political Divinity,	304
67	Polly, Privateer, Escape of	39
123	Preparation for War,	2
151	President, Frigate, Cruises off the North Cape,	221
351-390	Princess Elizabeth, British Packet, captured by the Harpy,	245
312	Privateering, success and Progress of	298
72-75	Privateers, Table of, belonging to New-York,	4
40	Privateers, Table of, belonging to Baltimore,	5
79	Privateers, Table of, belonging to Salem,	153
60	Privateers fit out from the Eastern States,	3
329	Privateers in East Indies,	316
305-306	Privateers from Rhode Island and South Carolina,	6
202	Privateers, Remarks on, Nov. 1814,	301 2
303, 304	Privateers leave the Capes of the Delaware,	38
ering, 89-95	Prizes in Month of July, 1812,	38
Ameri-	Prizes taken during the month of August, 1812,	44
303	Prizes arriving almost daily in the Atlantic Ports,	38
69	Prizes captured by Privateers,	57, 60, 63, 68, 77, 81, 89, 95, 114, 126, 146
160	151, 154, 235, 244, 294, 304, 312, 315, 316, 323, 348
	Public Opinion in 1812,	23-24