England can return for the abandonment of the submarine campaign.

"since the plan to starve Germany has finally failed."

Cannot Agree?

Count Von Reventlow in The Times

President Wilson persists in his refusal to recognize the German declaration of a war zone, we are not able to conceive of an agreement, or even a real understanding.

The Morgenpost says: "The note is full of tones of heartiness and friendliness and seeks to open and smooth the way for further negotiations. The offer to mediate between Germany and Great Britain will unquestionably be gladly accepted by the German Government, and if mediation fails, it will be Great Britain's fault."

The Morgenpost praises the uprightness of the U. S. and hopes that it will be possible to demonstrate that Germany is acting within her rights.

Tagblatt is Pacific.

The Tagblatt says: "It cannot be seen why the German Government should not be able to enter into a discussion with the American Government of mediation with England."

The answer will not be ready for several weeks, but it must be said that the German people now, as before, lay great weight on undisturbed relations with the United States, whose wars of liberation they joyfully greeted, and within whose borders millions of Germans have found new homes."

VIVID WAR SCENES

FIRST IN TORONTO

Exhibition Arranged by The World Portrays Actual Fighting Line Conditions.

RUSSIAN BAND ATTENDS

Juvenile Organization of Forty-Two Members Will Provide Music.

Seats will be on sale this morning at the Massey Hall box office for this week's showing of the Toronto World War Pictures, which are to be exhibited for the first time in Toronto or anywhere in Canada at Massey Hall on Wednesday night. This will be the first opportunity that Torontonians, and particularly readers of The World, will have to witness a complete exhibition of moving pictures which portray not only the conditions on the actual fighting line in Belgium and France, but also in six of the allied countries which are fighting the Germans to maintain the liberty of the world.

The exhibition is divided into three practical parts, the first and chief of which depicts wonderfully vivid active service operations of the English, French and Belgian troops on the actual fighting line, including trench life, big guns in action, captured German soldiers in the hands of the allies, the bombardment of Antwerp, the destructive power of modern shells, as shown in the razed and ruined towns and cities of Belgium, fires caused by incendiary bombs, Belgian refugees fleeing before the German advance, the British and French fleets cleared for action in battle array and many other incidents of the great European conflict.

Dealing With Italy.
The second portion of the exhibition deals entirely with Italy, Britain's latest ally in the great struggle. Canadian generally are unfamiliar with the military and naval exercises which the Italian army and navy, and the films depict mobilization operations prior to the declaration of war against Austria only a few weeks ago. These pictures reached Toronto from Europe, via New York, less than ten days ago, and they have never been exhibited before on the American continent.

The third portion of the two hours and a half display is devoted to the training and tactical exercises which the 13th and 20th Battalions underwent at Toronto prior to their departure for the front. They are shown in sham fighting operations, which were carried out at the Hunter and Cedarvale early in the spring. These pictures likewise have never before been projected on a screen in public, and friends of the soldiers who are now on their way to France will have an opportunity of renewing their recollection of the absent ones. The Vancouver battalions of the first contingent, and their departure from their home city also form a part of this portion.

Russian Juvenile Band.
A Russian juvenile band of 42 members will play at each performance, under the direction of I. Glass, late of Warsaw Conservatory, Russia. This band has only been heard in Toronto on one or two occasions. The artists' ages range from 8 to 11 years, although there are several players who are youths about 17 years old. The instruments used are the violin, modern, and are of every kind that are used in any band on the continent.

Prof. Glass, who is the director and the conductor, holds a diploma from several Russian conservatories of music, as well as marks of distinction from many noted Russian military bands, whose bandmaster he was, but the professor thinks he has never conducted a more energetic organization than this juvenile band.

Caster D. Soskin, a lad of 9 years, will conduct the band on several occasions during the performances. The band is under the management of the Sanders Concert Bureau of Toronto.

Following the opening on Wednesday night, two performances will be given daily, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, at popular prices. A lecture will be on the platform to explain and point out features of interest as they make their appearance on the screen.

Sir John and Lady Eaton spent the week-end at their country house in Muskoka, and will return to town tomorrow.

Mr. Gordon Turnbull of the Royal Bank was the banker in charge of the Rose Day collection of the L.O.D.B., and it was thru his very capable management that the counting of the large amount of money went so smoothly at the King Edward in the afternoon and evening. Very few people are able to realize the stupendous task of counting $25,000, chiefly in small silver.

The ladies committee of the Toronto Humane Society will meet this morning at 10:30 o'clock to make arrangements for Flag Day, July 1, and will be glad if any one willing to help will be present at the meeting, Humane Society's Conquest Hall, 100 College street, just stop down McCaul street, from College street.

Mr. Olive Pringle is in town from Cobourg.

Col. Sterling Ryerson, Miss Laura Ryerson and Mr. Arthur Ryerson, are expected to return home the beginning of July.

The marriage was quietly solemnized in England on June 10 of Antoinette, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald G. Parker, Ottawa, to Mr. Charles Lionel Turnbull of the Army Medical Corps, son of Rev. and Mrs. Mark Turnbull, Iderton, Ont., formerly of Goderich.

A letter received by the Secours National tells that the price of a reel of cotton has been reduced to 10 cents, and only one allowed to each customer. The ladies of the Society for French Relief would be glad to send them one reel each to 51 West King street.

Meetings.
The regular working meeting of the Chamber for chapter I.O.D.E. will be held in room 7, Central Y.M.C.A., College street, on Monday, June 14th, from 10 a. m. until 5 p.m. Anyone wishing to join in the work would be most welcome.

THE SECRET.
The secret of many a woman's beautiful hair is not in the hair, but in the scalp. A week, just before retiring at night, if you rub with the tips of your fingers, a little Red-Rub well into the roots of your hair, massaging the scalp gently, you will have gained the secret.

It will make your hair easy to arrange, wavy and bright. It will also keep both the hair and scalp in a healthy condition. The use of the Red-Rub makes it unnecessary to wash the hair too frequently.

Large bottles at all drug stores and toilet counters. 50c and $1.00; avoid substitutes. 1587314

WILSON'S GREAT AIM

TO BE PEACEMAKER

Washington Opinion is That Germany Will Make Pacific Reply.

Special to The Toronto World.
WASHINGTON, June 13.—President Wilson's greatest desire is to be able to contribute in some measure to the re-establishment of peace between the warring nations of Europe. The current controversy with Germany is expected to be adjusted so as to make the official friendship between Germany and the United States even more cordial and pave the way for playing the role of a good friend in the future.

Officials have intimations that German sentiment is more friendly, and this was accepted as indicating that the government is ready for peace measures.
