General Motors, which had advanced 1 1/2 to 20 1/2, and Willy's Overland which rose 7/8 to 14 3/4.

REVISED OPERATIONS IN SOUTH LORRAINE

Kealey and Belle Ellen Are Among the Claims That Are Now Opening Up.

COBALT, Aug. 7.—South Lorraine is picking up again.

The Kealey mine, owned by the Associated Gold Fields of Australia, and once an asset of the Farmers Bank, is being actively developed.

The Belle Ellen is resuming development operations.

The property owned by W. S. Curry, Pittsburg, has quite a gang of men employed and is showing well.

South Lorraine camp was just reaching the proven stage when Porcupine was discovered and all attention was diverted to the gold fields.

The men in the silver camp are now hoping that the district will now have a clear opportunity to prove its worth.

LITTLE PET AND FOLEY-O'BRIEN PORCUPINE, Aug. 6.—C. L. Sherrill of Buffalo is in town, and mining circles are expecting an important announcement regarding Foleyo-O'Brien.
