

by some Female Officer of the Prison.

FOURTH.

The Keeper shall keep a Journal, in which he shall record all punishments inflicted by his authority or by that of the visiting Commissioner, and the day when such punishments shall have taken place, and all other occurrences within the said House of Correction, in such manner as shall be directed by the Regulations to be made by this Act; which Journal shall be produced and shewn to the Commissioners.

FIFTH.

Due provision shall be made for the enforcement of hard labour; the means of hard labour shall be provided, and the materials requisite for the employment of Prisoners shall be purchased under such regulations as shall be made for the purpose by the Commissioners. If the work to be performed by the Prisoners be of such a nature as to require previous instruction, proper persons shall be appointed to afford the same.

SIXTH.

The Male and Female Prisoners shall be confined in separate parts of the Establishment, so as to prevent them from conversing or holding any intercourse with each other.

SEVENTH.

Female Prisoners shall in all cases be attended by Female Officers.

EIGHTH.

Every Prisoner shall, unless prevented by sickness, be employed so many hours in every day, not exceeding ten, exclusive of the time allowed for meals, as shall be directed by the Rules and Regulations to be made under this Act, except on Sundays, Christmas Days, Good Friday and other Days appointed by authority for fasting or thanksgiving.

NINTH.

Prayers to be selected from the Liturgy of the Church of England by the Chaplain, the Keeper, or by some other person as by the Rules and Regulations shall be directed, and portions of the Scriptures shall be read to the Prisoners, when assembled for instruction, by the Chaplain or such person as he may appoint or authorize.

TENTH.

Prisoners shall attend Divine Service on Sundays, and on all other days when such service is performed, unless prevented by illness or some other reasonable cause, to be allowed by the Keeper, or unless their attendance be dispensed with by one of the Visiting Commissioners.

ELEVENTH.

Every Prisoner shall be allowed a sufficient quantity of plain wholesome food, to be regulated by the Commissioners; regard being had to the nature of the labour required from or performed by such Prisoners, so that the allowance of food may be duly apportioned thereto, and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners to order for such Prisoners as are not able to work, such allowance of food as the said Commissioners may think necessary; Prisoners under the care of the Surgeon shall be allowed such diet as he may direct.

TWELFTH.

Every Prisoner shall be provided with suitable Bedding, and every Male Prisoner with a separate Bed, Hammock or Cot, either in a separate Cell, or in a Cell with not ^{less} more than two other Male Prisoners.

THIRTEENTH.

The Walls and Enterings of the Wards, Cells, Rooms and Passages used by Prisoners throughout the Building, shall be scraped and lime-washed, at least once in a year. The day Rooms, work Rooms, Passages and sleeping Cells shall be washed or cleansed once a week or oftener, if requisite.

No Money shall be taken from any Prisoner in the Building, on any pretence whatsoever, or account, or at any other time; but the Keeper of the Prison, shall take charge of the Money and safe keeping and custody, to be duly returned

EIGHTEENTH.

On the death of a Prisoner, notice shall be given to one of the Visiting Commissioners, as well as to the nearest Relative of the Deceased.

NINETEENTH.

No Keeper nor Officer of the Establishment or employed by him, shall let, or have any benefit, or letting any article, or any dealing whatsoever.

TWENTIETH.

If the Keeper shall not visit every Ward and inspect every Cell, once at least in every twelvemonth, he shall state the cause of such omission in his Journal.

TWENTY-FIRST.

The Wards, Cells and Yards allotted to Female Prisoners by Keys in the custody of the Matron, and such other persons securing the Wards, Cells and Yards all

TWENTY-SECOND.

No Prisoner shall be employed as Turnkey, Yardman, Overseer, Monitor or Schoolmaster in the Establishment, or in the service of any Officer, without the instruction of any other Prisoner.

TWENTY-THIRD.

Every order of the Surgeon for the admission of Tobacco, or other prohibited articles, shall be recorded by him in his Journal, as well as an account of the name of his or her disease, and a description of the nature and any other treatment which he may order.

TWENTY-FOURTH.

Every Prisoner shall, on being received into the Prison, be washed and cleansed, have his or her hair cut, and shall receive a Number with the Prison Dress, and shall receive a Number at all times be known and distinguished, and shall be required to keep themselves clean and to conform to such regulations for that purpose as the Keeper of the Prison.

TWENTY-FIFTH.

Every Prisoner shall keep the Prison Cloth clean, and shall not use Implements and other articles which may be used in disorder, without wilfully or carelessly destroying, or so using the same as to injure or defile his or her Cell, or any other Cell, or by writing, marking, cutting, scratching, destroying, or defile the same.

TWENTY-SIXTH.

Every Prisoner shall at all times keep strict order, and shall not speak to any other Prisoner, Keeper, Chaplain, Surgeon or Matron, on any subject relating to his or her health, comfort or occupation.