

continue to bless us, and that "peace and happiness, truth and justice, religion and piety, will be established among us forever." Let us obey, then, the Gospel, in all its precepts. Let us especially attend to this—"Fear the Lord and the King; and meddle not with them that are given to change." And now, my Brethren, in conformity to another of its divine precepts, allow me to intreat you to unite your fervent prayers with mine—that God will bless and save our King.

"O Lord, our Heavenly Father, high and mighty, King of Kings, Lord of Lords, the only Ruler of Princes, who dost from thy Throne behold all the dwellers upon Earth; most heartily we beseech thee with thy favour to behold our most gracious Sovereign Lord, King George; and so replenish him with the grace of thy holy Spirit, that he may always incline to thy will, and walk in thy way; endue him plentifully with heavenly gifts; grant him, in health and wealth long to live; strengthen him that he may vanquish and overcome all his enemies; and finally, after this life, he may attain everlasting joy and felicity; through Jesus Christ our Lord.—Amen.
