JOE MCGINNITY JUMPS NEWARK

Indians Playing Today in Montreal Under Catcher Smith—
Iron Man to Sell His Stock.

Joe McGinnity placed Catcher Smith in charge of the Indians after Saturday's game, and then started home to Newark, where he will complete the disposal of his stock and return from the club. The new catcher is at present owned by four stockholders: Newark, Ebbetts of Brooklyn, Smith of Chicago and Joe McGinnity, each holding one share.

McGinnity and Solomon never pulled well together, and the continual bickering recently has decided the course of the Iron Man to dispose of his holdings. He will likely pick up another club in one of the smaller leagues.

The Indians are playing in Montreal today under the direction of Catcher Smith, who has been the acting captain of the team. The Higgins has done the bulk of the backstop work.

A Saturday Run With the Hounds

The master, Mr. G. W. Beardmore made his first appearance in pink on Saturday, leading the Toronto Hunt on the Duke in a lively run after the hounds.

The start was from U.C.C. riding round Bedford Park, north to Fairbank and back to the Bathurst street hill, where they finished.

The hounds, which have an early morning run on Tuesday, meeting at Spadina and Forest Hill road at 6.30 a.m.

Leafs Should Draw Away From Hustlers This Week

Double-Headers Every Day Except Friday With Baltimore and Providence—Rudolph and Lush Today

The Toronto start out this week tied with Rochester, as a result of their victory on Saturday over Newark and the Leafs have eleven games this week with Baltimore and Providence, playing double-headers every day, except Friday and, going at the present clip, they should have nice margin to their credit by next Saturday night.

The Leafs six pitchers in wing form it looks like easy sailing for Kelly's men. Maxwell, Rudolph, Lush, Drueke, Kent and Gaspar are right and with the rest of the team going nicely the championship should be settled days before the Hustlers play their double-header at the stadium Saturday, Sept. 2, the date of the closing of the International League.

Jack Dunn and his Orioles will be here for a six-game series in three days, the teams playing a double-header each day. The first game of which is at 8 o'clock. Rudolph and Lush will be the Toronto pitchers to-day, while Patey and Shawley will likely be on the mound for the visitors. The plan for the games is at 117 Bay street and 23 West King street.

Leafs Clean Up With Newark
Indians on Saturday, and Are Now Tie With Rochester at Top of League.

Like several games recently, Saturday's baseball fixture at the island was played on a soggy field. It rained too heavily early in the afternoon that the outlook appeared hopeless, but with the coming of the sun prodigious efforts were made, with fair success, to put the field in shape. At 4 o'clock, by which time a good crowd had assembled, play was started. This was the last game of the series and of the season between Toronto and Newark, and it went the same way as all the other games of the week, Leafs winning by 4 to 1, making their tenth straight victory. Three Rochester's loss to Providence, Toronto is now tied for the leadership.

Kent pitched for the Leafs and had fair success, keeping the seven hits scattered, and only one run was scored. He was lucky in the second that two batters made, as the first two batters singled and the next one sacrificed. With Swacina and W. Zimmerman on third and second, E. Zimmerman rapped a stifling grounder to Bradley, who made a good stop and Swacina was run down. Only a few feet foul and was then walked and Enzman popped to McConnell. Newark scored in the eighth on two singles, a force out and a miff of a hard twister by O'Hara. Two were gone in the eighth when a single and a sacrifice hit the bases, but an infield grounder ended the trouble.

Toronto got their runs early in the game. It was one two, three in the first, and in the second Jordan led off with a double to centre. Bradley struck out and McConnell hit to Vaughn, who threw badly to centre. Bradley beat one to Swacina and Jordan got his fourteenth homer into the bleachers, the ball just passing the high for Collins to jump and Dent was then substituted for Enzman, and twirled the next four innings. Cleveland relieved Dent in the eighth, but no runs were scored off him.
