Furnishings for Baby and Clothes of Various Types for Little Girls

A. The healthiest baby is the baby that sleeps and lives out of doors, is a maxim that every modern mother firmly believes. And the "kiddle-koop" in the illustration offers a happy solution of how baby can best lead the outdoor life. It has a white enameled frame, sides covered with rust-proof wire, mosquito netting across the top, a spring bottom and mattress. When not in use as a sleeping compartment the mattress can be removed and a floor put over the bottom to convert it into a play-yard. For travelling it can be folded into a compact space. Size 26 wide by 42 long and 30 inches high is $22.50. Size 28 x 32 x 34 is $26.00.

B. A baby walker will save many a tumble when baby begins to toddle, and it's an ideal way of teaching any wee mite to walk. For it supports the soft little body in just the right places, and does away with all danger of wrenching the shoulders, sometimes the case when first steps are guided by the arms. The baby walker sketched has a mahogany finished frame, easily pushed along on casters. Leather straps secure the baby, and a little spring seat provides a resting-place when he or she is tired. The little tray is most convenient for toys or food, and some of these trays are provided with colored marbles on a strong wire. Price, $2.50 and $2.75.

C. A most attractive garment, this, which has taken the place of the "rabbit skin" to wrap the baby during winter, is a dear little sweater coat of soft cream-colored wool, in plain stitch, with pink or blue edging down the front, and on its tiny collar and cuffs. Sizes 1 to 5. Price, $3.50.

D. If you think your baby needs a warmer sweater, here is a delightful alternative—such a cosy little coat, of soft cream-colored wool, in plain stitch, with pink or blue edging down the front, and on its tiny collar and cuffs. Sizes 1 to 5. Price, $3.50.

Do You Know the Acousticon?

It is an inconspicuous electrical instrument, light in weight, which is of great assistance to the deaf, and is now obtainable in the Optical Department. The 1918 model, with the new small earpiece, is one of the latest developments of science in the way of aid for failing ears. Several types of the instrument are shown, to suit various degrees of impairment.

If you have difficulty in conversing with your family and friends, or in conducting your business, come in and inspect the Acousticon. A demonstrator will explain the details of use and the various points of excellence.

Returned soldiers deafened by shell-shock have found it most helpful.

If you live out of town send for a leaflet about the Acousticon.

J. Simple and practical a dress as a girl would wish to wear, and most attractive, withal, is this, made of reseda green Kimble cloth. The back is double-pleated, like the front, as far as the belt. The collar, which forms a deep V at the back, is white, with embroidered green corners like the cuffs, and both belt and pockets are adorned with pearl buttons. Obtainable also in rose and Copenhagen. Sizes 6 to 14. Price, $3.95.

K. Cool and light and most practically fashioned, this peach-colored voile dress—pleated below a wide belt, like the blue and white striped collar, cuffs and pocket edges making a pretty contrast. This green, Copenhagen and rose. Sizes 6 to 14. Price, $5.00.

L. Isn't this a charming little frock for a charming little girl? Its skirt, with the panel front, out in one with the belt, is of blue and green checked voile. But an Oliver Twist air is given by the points, which button to the little white organza blouse, with a frilled front, collar and cuffs. The same style can be obtained in delightful shades of gold and mauve, grey and rose, blue and rose. Sizes 6 to 14. Price, $5.95.

M. The responsibility of taking care of two or three younger sisters seems to weigh rather heavily on this demure young person, for nothing else could make her so serious, all ready to go out in a boat, and with such a lovely sweater on. It is of rose-colored-wool, a splendidly sensible, cosy sort of sweater, that buttons to the neck, and has close-fitting cuffs. It can be had in Copenhagen, gold, grey or green if preferred. Size 6 to 14. Price, $4.50.

N. In the sailor or on the beach, she really doesn't really doesn't mind, for she's equipped for either in her "beach-rumper" suit of navy blue cotton drill. It has elastic at the knees, an all-round belt, and laces up the front with a white lace. It is obtainable in sizes 6 to 12, and its price is most moderate at $1.50.

PLANNED CREATION OF IRISH BRIGADE

Evidence at Trial in London Reveals German Plotting.

TO FOMENT RISING

Corp. Joseph Dowling Faces Courtmartial for Irish Activities.

London, July 8.—The trial by court-martial opened here today of Corp. Joseph Dowling, who landed on the Irish coast in a German collapsible boat two months ago, and who since has been a prisoner in the Tower of London. Dowling, in civilian clothes, was brought to the court in an automobile and accompanied by a non-commissioned officer armed with a revolver. Sir Archibald Bodkin, the prosecutor, described at great length the German plot launched at the end of 1914 for the formation of an "Irish brigade" from among the Irish taken prisoner on the British front. The scheme, Sir Archibald said, was repudiated by most of the prisoners, but Dowling and a few others joined the brigade and acted as recruiting agents.

The prosecutor described the means used by the Germans to induce Irishmen to join, and, in particular, the German promise to them, reading: "At the end of the war the German government undertakes to send every member of the Irish brigade to the U.S."

ASASSINATION LIKE ARCHDUKE'S MURDER

London, July 8.—The assassination of Count von Mirbach, the German ambassador to Russia, is seen as an event of great importance, which may have far-reaching results, by the newspapers here. The Daily Mail and the Daily Express agree that the assassination may have momentous consequences, and compare it to the murder of Archduke Francis Ferdinand at Sarajevo four years ago. The Express adds:

"German influence in Russia can only be established on a solid basis by the maintenance of a great army of occupation. Russia may once more play a part in the war."

BOLSHEVIK CHIEF TAKEN.

London, July 8.—The Czechoslovak forces, which recently overthrew the Bolshevik Government at Vladivostok, says a despatch from Tokyo under date of July 8, to the Exchange Telegraph Co., have made prisoner the Bolshevik commander and his staff. Everything is now quiet at the Russian Pacific port, the despatch adds.

AUSTRALIANS PUSH DEFENCES AHEAD

New Operations Extend Front of Advance to Astride Somme.

With the British Army in France, July 8.—In the course of the night Australian troops attacked and carried their line forward astride the Somme River to a depth of 600 yards on a front of 3000 yards. The operation moved the defences on the river ahead to correspond with the push made by the Australians and the Americans in their Fourth of July attack just north of the river.

The independence day drive had left a triangular salient in the British line on the river west of Sully-Laurette, and it was to remove this that last night's assault was undertaken. The affair seems to have been a complete success. There was a heavy retaliation from the German artillery between midnight and 4 o'clock this morning, but thus far no counter-attack has been reported.

The British gunners were exceedingly active in the night in maintaining a harassing fire along many sectors of the front. Captured documents and statements by prisoners indicate that the enemy is having a bad time in numerous zones with the new influenza which is running thru Europe. An unposted letter found in the pocket of a man captured on July 7 throws some light on this subject. It reads: "I feel so ill that I should like to report sick. Fever is rampant among us, and already a whole lot of men are in the hospital. Every day more go in. As I have not yet had leave, and am expecting to go any day, I shall not report sick, yet anyway."

JAPS LOYAL FRIENDS OF RUSSIAN PEOPLE

Paris, July 8.—Ex-Fremier Kerensky of Russia, in an interview by his fellow-countryman, Halperine Kaminsky, printed in the Excelsior today, gives his opinion on the subject of Japanese intervention in Russia more definitely than he has done heretofore.

After attempting to describe the chaos now ruling in Russia, where "every town and village, large or small, has its soviet acting as it pleases, without regard for the orders of the people's commissioners, and where all property rights have been abolished except for Germans," M. Kerensky said: "It is time, once for all, to understand our position. We have no prejudice against the Japanese people. They always have been loyal, even during our struggle in Manchuria before the war and during the war, but that is not the question.

"It is the question once more of not playing the game of the Bolsheviks and their German protectors by giving them the opportunity of exploiting anew the ignorance of the Russian masses in making them believe the Japanese are coming to make war on Russia. Has not Trotsky said that between German and Japanese occupation he would prefer the German?"

A BOARD APPOINTED.

Ottawa, July 8.—The minister of labor has established a board of conciliation to deal with the dispute between the Canadian Pacific Railway Company and its commercial telegraphers. Judge Scott of Perth, has been appointed chairman of the board. W. N. Tilley, K.C., of Toronto, will represent the company and David Campbell of Regina the men. The dispute is over wages and working conditions.

ALLIES BEGIN ADVANCE NEAR ALBANIAN COAST

Rome, July 8.—Italian and French troops in Albania on July 8 began an operation between the coast and the Tomorica Valley the Italian war office announced today.

The operation still is in full and satisfactory development, the statement adds. More than a thousand prisoners so far have been taken by the entente allied forces.

Italian troops yesterday advanced their front line in the region of Col La Priole, the Italian war office announced today. In the Monte Grappa region the Italians gained further ground northward of Missek on Saturday. Eight enemy airplanes were destroyed yesterday in air battles. The text reads: "In the Lagarine Valley and the Vallarsa there was more frequent harassing artillery fire yesterday. To the north of Monte di Valbella our patrols, after a brisk struggle, drove back enemy reconnoitering elements. On Monte Grappa on Saturday we gained ground north of Missek, taking 51 prisoners, and capturing two machine guns and a flame projector. "Yesterday in the region of Col La Priole we extended our advanced occupation."

KAISER ORDERS BREAK.

News of Assassination Impels Emperor to Immediate Action. London, July 8.—As soon as Emperor William heard of the assassination of Count von Mirbach, the German ambassador to Russia, according to an Exchange Telegraph despatch from Amsterdam, he ordered Foreign Secretary von Kuehlman to break off negotiations with the Russian delegates in Berlin.

DISPUTE UNSETTLED.

Amsterdam, July 8.—The Turco-Bulgarian dispute over the division of territory taken from Rumania under the peace agreement with the central powers is still at the forefront in Constantinople, according to indications in a Constantinople telegram to The Rheinische Westfaelische Zeitung of Essen.

RUSSIAN SOCIALISTS RISE IN REVOLUTION

Serious Fighting With Bolsheviki Proceeds in Moscow Immediately After Assassination.

Washington, July 8.—Fighting took place in Moscow between Bolsheviki forces and revolutionary socialists following the assassination of Count von Mirbach, the German ambassador, according to an official despatch today from Switzerland.

On leaving the German embassy, the despatch says, the assassins took refuge in a house occupied by the revolutionary socialists. This building was defended by machine guns. A serious counter-revolution has broken out in Moscow, according to a semi-official Wolff Bureau telegram, dated on Sunday from Moscow, and transmitted to London by the Exchange Telegraph Company's correspondent at Copenhagen. Fighting of great severity is taking place in the streets between the Bolsheviki troops and socialist revolutionaries.

BURGULARS BLEW UP SAFE.

Ottawa, July 8.—Burglars blew up the safe in the general store of McLaren and Company at Wakefield Village, near here, Saturday night, and got away with three hundred dollars in cash and ten thousand dollars worth of securities and notes. The big haul is worthless to the thieves, as the paper is non-negotiable. In order to stifle the sound of the explosion of nitro-glycerine the burglars piled up clothing in front of the safe door.
