ZORAYA AT CHARLOTTE.

Fisher Cup Challenger and Crew Saluted With Cannon and Cheers,

Rochester, Aug. 8.—(Special.)—Zoraya, the Canadian challenger for the Fisher Cup. arrived at Charlotte to-night at 7 o'clock in tow of Aemilius Jarvis' yawl Sitarob. The Zoraya left Oak Orchard this morning at 9 o'clock, and sailed all day in a very light breeze. There was a dead roll on the lake and her progress was slow. The Sitarob also sailed under canvas for the greater part of the day, but as they approached Charlotte power was applied on the yawl, and the two boats entered the harbor saluted by cannon and cheering of hundreds of spectators ashore. spectators ashore.

Aboard of Zoraya were J. G. Worts, J.

McMurray, P. G. Myles, C. B. Lowndes

A William Bruce.

They were met by members of the recep-tion committee and entertained at the club house in the evening, where they were join-ed later by Skipper Jarvis. Zoraya will go on the ways early in the morning for scrap-ing. The first race is on Saturday.

To-day will be devoted entirely to the open team match. The conditions are, 36 holes, medal play, and the competition is open to teams of four men a side from any one club.

The Education Act of 1902 was intended to compel local authorities to pay for religious instruction in the voluntary schools, and led to the noto ious "passive resistance" movement, under which numbers of nonconformists refused to pay the rates levied to cover this expenditure for church schools. The Education Bill, which was recently under discussion in parliament, is intended to remedy this state of affairs. In the meantime the county council of the Education Bill, which was recently under discussion in parliament, is intended to remedy this state of affairs. In the meantime the county council of the west riding of Yorkshire had refused to pay teachers for the time devoted by them to religious instruction. The board of education then sought the assistance of the courts in the matter, with the result that the court of appeals decided in favor of the Yorkshire council.

If this decision should be upheld by the hadrouse of lords, whither the case will now be carried, it will practically accompilish by a legal stroke what the board of education, aims at, and, bill of Augustine Birrell, president of the board of education, aims at, and, wa, each made a possible of 50. It is declared in the report that a good deal of harm is being done both gas and water pipes, and that particularly along the waterfront has havoc been wrought. It is suggested as a remedy that two trolley wires instead of a single wire be used, thereby presenting the return curwires instead of a single wire be used, thereby preventing the return current from entering the ground. Another alternative is the insulating of the pipes so as to render them nonconductors, and a third is to loose the bond of the rails in positive districts and tighten the bonding in negative districts.
