Wilson, of New York, and Major Woodward, of Albany, visited us recently in Ottawa. No especial entertainment was planned; however, when we came to your town through the courtesy of these gentlemen the doors of the National Democratic, the New York Athletic, the Army and Navy and the Transportation Clubs were thrown open to our officers. Your idea of entertaining is glorious. I hope and pray that if there is another war we may fight on the same side with you Americans. We could easily be-
