CHARGES MULTIPLY AGAINST ATKINSON, MOTHER AND DALTON

Assisting Deserter, Insulting King's Uniform, Assaulting Officer on the List.

ST. THOMAS, July 29.—As a result of a roundup by the police yesterday afternoon, Thomas Earl Atkinson, aged 19 years, was in court today charged with assisting Thomas G. Dalton, a de-with assisting Thomas G. Dalton, a deserter, to resist arrest.

Sergt. Wray of the Dominion military police, has also laid a charge against Atkinson of insulting the King's uniform, assautting an officer and resisting arrest himself. It is alleged by Sergt. Wray that he, with three officer of the civilian police, went to arrest Dalton, who had escaped from the London jail.

They went to a house where he the London jail.

They went to a house where he was, but Atkinson came out and used abusive language, and also attempted to strike the officers. Mrs. Atkinson, mother of the accused, also appeared on a charge of keeping a house of ill-fame at 44 Inkerman street, and J. D. Clourax was charged with having liquor there. The latter was fined $200 and costs or four months in jail, while Mrs. Atkinson, who pleaded guilty, was remanded for sentence for one week.

guilty, was remanded for sentence for one week.

Mrs. Atkinson was then charged with concealing Daiton, knowing him to be a deserter. She pleaded guilty to this also. Daiton himself elected trial by judge and jury on an old charge of stealing, which the Michigan Central authorities laid against him. It is alleged that he had stolen some shoes from a car which was in transit last fall.

He was committed for trial by the contempt of court unless he kept quiet.

Atkinson then offered to tell the truth, and in his further evidence he told an absolutely different story and admitted having the liquor and also admitted seeing the others drink it.

In remanding him to jail after pleading guilty to the various charges the magistrate told Atkinson that he was very sorry to see such a young man being made use of as a tool in the hands of older men, and he warned him that he would probably receive a pretty stiff sentence. teacher—Plano, voice, theory. held today instructions were issued for the county grant of $18,000 to the Y. M.C.A. for overseas work to be paid immediately. At the regular session immediately. At the regular session in June this grant was held up pending an investigation into "Y" affairs. The members today were satisfied that everything was all right.

The purpose of the special meeting today was to discuss the advisability of asking the Government to take over as provincial county highways, certain roads in this county, it was decided finally to send a request to the Government that the county roads running from Thamesford to Muir via lingersoil and Woodstock, also from Woodstock to Tavistock be taken over as provincial roads. Woodstock to Tavistock be taken over as provincial roads.

If the Government agrees, it will pay 60 per cent of maintenance and 60 per cent of construction, whereas only 40 per cent of the construction and 20 per cent of maintenance cost is paid by the Government on the county system. The roads are all leading highways to other counties.

ST. THOMAS, July 29.—Daniel Fisher and John Gilbert, two Pere Marquette employees, appeared before Magistrate Hunt this morning, charged with stealing potatoes from a Pere Marquette car last May. The information was laid by Detective Hare, but on account of the absence of the crown-attorney the case was adjourned until Monday next.

Chicago, July 30.—Corn developed weakness today, influenced by better weather and by reports that relations between Turkey and Germany had been severed. Absence of confirmation, however, of the reports of such a severance led to something of a rally, and so, too, did the less encouraging tenor of the war news. Trading lacked volume. Opening prices, which ranged from %c to %c lower, were followed by a further setback and then by a moderate reaction.

Disastrous Blaze Deprives the Town of Its Water Service.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Tillsonburg, July 30.—One of the mostdisastrous fires that has occurred here in years destroyed the Tillsonburg waterworks tower this morning. Fire was discovered this morning about 3 o'clock. An alarm was sent in immediately, but nothing could be done to save the building as the fire had made great headway. The cause is as yet unknown. The less will exceed fifty thousand, partly covered by insurance. The town will be at a complete loss for water for domestic and lawn service, as the entire system was destroyed. An addition to the building was the Tillson Company beehive factory, which was completely destroyed with a very heavy loss.
