WEDDING BELLS

The marriage of William G. Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Kelly, of Glen Meyer, and Miss Olive Harriet McNabb was performed at the home of the bride, Tillson avenue, Tillsonburg, on Thursday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. Bole in the presence of only the immediate relatives. The bride was supported by Miss Florence Palmer, while the groom was assisted by his brother, Culver Kelly. The bride's brother Stanley arrived home from France on the noon train in time for the ceremony. After the sumptuous wedding breakfast had been partaken of the young couple left for Detroit and other points on a short honeymoon. A quiet wedding was solemnized at St. Paul's Methodist parsonage at Tillsonburg on Thursday, when Miss Eva Reynolds, eldest daughter of Mrs. M. Reynolds, was united in marriage to George Thring by Rev. T. H. Bole. They were attended by Miss Esther Reynolds, sister of the bride, and Pte. Percy Thring, brother of the groom. After the ceremony the party returned to the bride's home, where a wedding breakfast was served to the immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The happy couple
