Of his winning the second bar, the Canada Gazette says: Lieut.-Col. Albert Walter Sparling, D.S.O., Ist Battalion, Canadian Infantry, Western Ontario Regiment. For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty north of Hendenelghborhood of Cagnicourt on 2nd and 3rd September. This officer was the only surviving lieutenant-colonel, all mother senior field officers having become casualties. He was twice ordered to gade front, first, in the case of an enemy counter-attack, and a few days later when there was some confusion and loss of direction of our troops. In dealing with these matters he had to cross open ground and appreciate the situation under heavy fire. His conduct and example inspired all ranks to successful completion of their tasks. duct and example inspired all ranks to successful completion of their tasks.
